MY WORK-MY BLESSING.

Let me but do my work from day to day. In field or fores, at the desk or boom in rearing market-place or tranquil com-let me but find it in my heart to say. When vagrant visites becken me astray. "This is my work; my blessing, not my down."

odoon:

Of all who live, I am the one by whom

This work can best be done in the right way.

Then shall I see it in not too great, nor small,

To sult my spirit and to prove my powers;

Then shall I cheerful great the laboring hours,

And cheerful turn, when the long shadows fall
At eventide, to play and love and rest,
Because I know for me my work is best,

Most Serious Mistake Manager Can Make Is to Allow Personal Feel-ing to Dominate Him.

Not a few managers are so consultated that 'correct business principle' is by no means second nature to them. Other, characteristics may out-balance that which makes for serae and just management, in which case not only the firm suffers but employed individually.

The manager with a weakness for sweet faces or a leaning toward the kind who will blarrey him, or a tendency to petty spite and recriminations is sure to do a thing or two not quite in accord with what is generally known as good business practice. In setad of submerging his own individuality entirely in that of his business, he allows it to dominate. Its leading manifestation is favoritism.
