TURKEY FAILED TO MEET DEMANDS MADE UPON IT IN ITALIAN REASON FOR WAR.

TURKEY SENT CONCILIATORY REPLY; EVADING DIRECT ANSWER.

Time of Hostilities Dates From 2:30 Friday Afternoon, at the End of the 24-Hour Ultimatum.

Actual hostilities have opened. The Italians have landed at Tripoli and Benghazi, which is 480 miles east of Tripoli. The first naval battle of the war was fought between the Italian and Turkish navies. The Italian fleet, consisting of the battleship Caio Duilio, the armored cruiser Albatross, and the torpedo boat Albatross, defeated the Turkish fleet, consisting of the battleship Hamidieh, the armored cruiser Hamidieh, and the torpedo boat Hamidieh.

Italy has declared war on Turkey. The official announcement was made late Friday. It declared that two countries were in a state of war beginning at halfpast 2 o'clock on the afternoon of Friday, Sept. 29. This is the hour at which the Italian ultimatum to Turkey expired. The announcement followed a session of the cabinet at which the Turkish reply was considered and found unsatisfactory.

Though every indication pointed to a declaration of war by the Italian government, there was always a possibility that the good offices of other governments would be successful in averting hostilities, and when the final decision of the cabinet was announced the excitement throughout the country was intense.

Signor Di San Giuliano, minister of state, received the Turkish reply from the Turkish ambassador and immediately went into conference with his associates in the Ottoman government. It is understood the Ottoman government completely concurred Italy's economic claims in Tripoli, but evaded the direct answer demanded by this government, which had set forth in its ultimatum that Turkey must say that she would not resist the proposed occupation of Tripoli and Cyrene. Instead the port sent a conciliatory note suggesting further delay. It was known that at the same time Turkey transmitted a note to the powers, in which it is assumed that she represented herself as the injured party, and by inference that she would not resist the proposed occupation of Tripoli and Cyrene.

The royal government decided to stand absolutely by the ultimatum, and in the absence of the reply called for by the ultimatum, the Turkish government was held in the hour that the 24 hours allowed expired.
