

Storm completes sweep of Whalers

Plymouth Whalers goaltender Robert Eache didn't go out the way he wanted, but upon further examination maybe he did.

With the Whalers trailing the Guelph Storm 3-0 after two periods in the fourth game of the Ontario Hockey League playoff semifinals Friday night, Eache stayed on the bench and let Robert Holsinger play the third period.

The Storm was on its way to sweeping the series behind the superb goaltending of Chris Madden, and this was Eache's way of passing the torch to Holsinger a little sooner than expected.

The Storm held on and won 6-2 before 3,431 at the Compuware Sports Arena, to earn a berth in the finals against Ottawa, but Eache is as much a winner, according to coach Peter DeBoer.

"I gave Robert the opportunity to hand over the duties to Holsinger or play, and he chose to let Holsinger play," DeBoer said. "That shows the class and leadership he gave us for the last three years. Holsinger is the future of our team in net, and he got in a period of great semifinal experience as a rookie."

but a scary injury to the Storm's Andrew Loner with 13:56 left in the first period led to a five-minute match penalty to the Whalers' Jesse Boulerice. The game was delayed about 20 minutes as Long had to be taken off on a stretcher with a concussion after a check by Boulerice.

The Storm gained a two-man advantage less than a minute later when Steve Waayloik was sent off for tripping and Guelph's Jason Jackman opened the scoring with a goal in the slot at 8:00 of the first period.

With Boulerice still serving his match penalty, the score grew to 2-0 when Brian Willis scored from short range after fanning on his initial attempt with 9:48 left.

"Our game plan every night was to come out and hit, and I know it wasn't purposely done. Jesse is devastated by it," DeBoer said.

"We were just beaten by the better team. I'm real proud. We were picked fourth in the division and ended up in the final four."

The Storm made the score 3-0 when Nick Bootland scored at 10:42 of the second period with both teams at even strength.

Guelph coach George Burnett said Loner's condition was more important than their advancement into the finals.

"Nobody likes to see it; it's not
