VICIOUS DOG

In Farmington Hills:
Police headed the pleas of a dog-owner and shot the animal to death Tuesday evening on Tulane Street after she said it was out of centrol and had eluded efforts to capture it for four hours. Shoot the dog, Just shoot it!" the woman told officers, who also reported they were threatened by the grey/black Shepherd mix when they tried to catch it. Neighbors, some armed with sticks, said the dog had been attacking other dogs and one man said it had bitten his daughter a few days earlier, eccording to police reports. The dog, which did not have its shots, ran down the street after the first bullet his it in the side and an officer had to chase it and shoot it twice more. The dog was taken by the Oakland County Animal Control for rabies tests.
