

Youth camp has openings

This summer, hiking, fishing and performing arts highlight the list of activities featured at the Orion/Oxford Boys and Girls Club summer camp program. Membership applications are now being accepted for the nine week program, which will be held at Bald Mountain beginning Monday, June 22. The day program will run from 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Mon.-Fri. Latchkey is also offered from 8 a.m.-10 a.m. and 4-6 p.m. Besides the daily activities, weekly field trips, including trips to a minor league baseball game and the Thunderbolt hydroplane races in Detroit, are planned. Children can join the Boys and Girls Club for a $10 annual membership fee, which includes the summer program. The weekly camp field trips are an additional charge. For more information, call 391-6881. Donations can be sent to Orion/Oxford Boys and Girls Club, c/o Kelly Heath, P.O. Box 564, Lake Orion, 48361.

Former state First Lady to address ADL event

Former Michigan First Lady Helen Milliken will be keynote speaker at the second annual Anti-Defamation League Women of Achievement 6 p.m. Tuesday, April 21 at St. John's Armenian Church and Conference Center, Southfield.

Milliken, former co-chairwoman of the national drive to pass the Equal Rights Amendment and founding member of the Michigan Women's Foundation, will discuss current issues in the women's movement.

Area women to be honored include Eleanor Josaitis executive director of Focus:HOPE; Joyce Keller, executive director of JARC, an Oakland County-based agency helping mentally retarded individuals; Denise Hiltch Lites, vice chairwoman of Little Caesar's Enterprises, Inc. and president of Olympia Development and Betty Maple tax partner and national director of diversity for the accounting firm of Deloitte & Touche.

Blue Cross Blue Shield of Michigan and Deloitte & Touche are principal sponsors of this year's ADL Michigan Region event.

For tickets, or for other information, call the local ADL office at (248) 355-3730.

Prayer breakfast to feature Michigan's Miss America

Former Miss America Kay Lani Rae Rafko will be among the speakers at a May 7 prayer breakfast to be held at Oakland University.

Rafko, who held the crown in 1988, will speak on "Enjoying the Gift of Life." The 17th-annual Rochester Area Prayer Breakfast begins 7 a.m. in Oakland University's Shotwell Pavilion.

The event is held in recognition of the National Day of Prayer on May 1. Rafko has become a wife and mother since serving as Miss America. She has also pursued careers as a registered nurse and a motivational speaker.

Mobile Vietnam Memorial to make area visit this week

A smaller version of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Washington, D.C., will be making a one-week stop in Trenton. The half-scale, 252 foot-long Vietnam Memorial Moving Wall will be displayed at the Chrysler Trenton Engine Plant April 19-26.

The names of the 58,302 members of the armed service who died or are missing in action in Vietnam are etched into the Wall's aluminum panels. The display will be open to the public 24 hours a day in a field adjacent to the Chrysler plant.

Many community tributes have been planned for the week, including a continuous reading aloud of the names etched on the wall. More than 400 statewide union members are expected to participate in UAW day on April 28, according to George H. Turner, chairman on Local 372 Veterans Committee.
