as Harrison outhit Northville, 12-7. Senior Andy Gutierrez had an RBI with a squeeze bunt.

Cornwell pitched a complete game for Harrison, striking out six and walking three.

On Saturday, the Hawks won the Southfield-Lathrup Tournament by beating Lake Orion, 7-0, and Berkley, 6-2.

Ghannam (3-1) pitched a one-hit, complete game against Lake Orion. He struck out four and walked four, and he allowed only a bunt single.

Fisher, Cornwell and Gutierrez had two hits apiece. Fisher batted in three runs. Cornwell and Gutierrez one each.

Junior Zach Burton also went the distance on the mound in the championship, holding Berkley batters to four hits. Burton (4-0) struck out eight and walked one in a solid pitching performance.

Fisher sparked the offense again with a three-run homer. Gutierrez continued to do his part at the plate with two hits and one RBI.

N. FARMINGTON 2, W.L. CENTRAL 1: The Raiders scored the winning run in the bottom of the seventh inning Monday to make a winner of senior pitcher Jeff Troas.

Dylan Glazer started the seventh with a single, advanced on Mike Gleeson's sacrifice bunt and scored on Kirk Taylor's single.

Troas scored the tying run in the fourth inning. He walked and moved up on a bunt. When Gerry Penta hit a grounder to third, the Central third baseman overthrew first, allowing Troas to score.

Jeff Hetrick had an RBI single for the Vikings in the third inning. Glazer was 2-for-3.

Troas pitched a two-hit, complete game. Shawn Morrison went the distance for Central, giving up five hits. Both pitchers had seven strikeouts and four walks.

The Raiders are 7-0 in the WLLA Lakes Division and 12-3 overall.

"It was an excellent pitching duel," North coach Irv Horwitz said. "We're winning. When we need it, we're able to come through with the big hits and the big runs."

On Saturday, the Raiders split a pair of games in a Bloomfield Hills tournament, losing to Troy 10-9 and defeating Lahser 5-2.

Penta pitched five innings and took the loss, but the Raiders committed four errors.

Gleeson, Troas, Penta and Glazer had two RBI each. Gleeson homered and scored two runs. Taylor, who had one RBI, and Penta had two hits each. Glazer and Taylor counted doubles among their hits.

Matt Keimigian made his varsity pitching debut against Lahser and earned the victory. He scattered five hits over 6½ innings and struck out seven.

Gleeson had three RBI with a bases-loaded double. Matt Lash went 2-for-2; Keimigian and Tom Moran had RBI singles.

JOHN GLENN 4, FARMINGTON 3: The Rockets scored twice in the bottom of the seventh inning Monday to win it. The visiting Falcons had taken a 3-2 lead with two runs in the top half of that inning.

Gordie Smith and Chet Rees singled home runs in that inning as the Rockets improved to 5-3 in the WLLA Lakes Division and 8-10 overall.

Brian Miller, who knocked in a run in the fourth, Smith and Rees led Glenn with two hits each.

Josh Utley pitched a solid game over 6½ innings for the winners. He allowed only three hits and four walks and struck out eight, but he didn't get the victory.

That went to Brian Alt, who threw a grand total of one pitch in the seventh inning to record one out.

Charlie Avery also pitched well for Farmington, giving up six hits in a complete game. He walked four and struck out eight.

The Falcons dropped to 1-6 in the division and 3-16 overall.

REDFORD CC 4-4, DELASALLE 2-1: Catholic Central clinched first place in the Catholic League Central Division baseball standings Saturday with a doubleheader sweep of host Warren Delasalle.

The Shamrocks won the first game finished with a 12-4 division record and. They only needed one win to assure their first regular-season title in four years.

CC starts the league playoffs at 4 p.m. Saturday with a first-round game at the Harper Woods Bishop Gallagher Baseball Complex in Utica.

Dan Duffy earned the pitching decision in the first game, throwing the final 3½ innings in relief of starter Mike Haller. Duffy allowed only one hit and struck out nine.

Chris Woodruff hit a two-run home run in the first inning and a solo homer in the top of the seventh. The Shamrocks (17-4) scored a pair of runs to break a 2-2 tie in the seventh as Matt Frink also drove in a run with a double.

Mark Cole was the winning pitcher in the second game, striking out seven and scattering six hits in going the distance. Brent Zak had two RBI, one on a sacrifice fly and another on a single.

The Shamrocks on Monday beat Madison Heights Bishop Foley, 3-2, as Anthony Tomey pitched a complete game. The victory was Tomey's fourth against one loss.

Dave Lusky broke up a 2-2 tie in the fifth inning with a solo homer.

WESTERN 5, FRANKLIN 1: Kevin Thomas smacked a three-run homer in the third inning to lead Walled Lake Western to a four-run win over Livonia Franklin Monday.

Mike Coopersmith limited the Patriots to four hits in going the distance. He struck out six and walked two.

Franklin, which dropped to 4-16 overall and 1-8 in the WLLA, scored its lone run in the first inning. Rob Ramer walked, stole second and third, and finally scored on a passed ball.

David Word pitched well in defeat. He allowed eight hits over six innings, struck out nine and walked one.

SALEM 4, STEVENSON 1: Jason Lukasik tossed a four-hitter to lead the Rocks to a home win Monday. He struck out five and walked three in going the distance.

Salem (13-10, 5-3) scored three runs in the first inning and a single run in the sixth. A pair of Livonia errors helped the Rocks in the first while Salem's Brett Burleson hit a solo home run in the sixth.
