

WEDDINGS & ENGAGEMENTS

engagement of their daughter Tracy Ann to Todd Frush, son of Nancy Katz of West Bloomfield and Michael Frush of Farmington.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of Michigan State University with a B.S. in child development. She is the lead teacher at Botsford Hospital Child Care Center in Farmington Hills.

The groom is a graduate of Michigan State University with a B.S. in physiology. He is a self-employed residential builder and will start medical school in the fall at Chicago Medical School.

A summer wedding is planned.

SZOTT-MAGNESS

Robin Elizabeth Magness and Thad Michael Szott were married on February 14 at St. Fabian Church with a reception at the Dearborn Inn.

Robin is the daughter of Robert and Becky Magness of Columbia, Mo. She is a graduate of Western Michigan University and is employed at V.S.I. Services.

Thad is the son of Tom and Trina Szott of Farmington Hills and a graduate of Michigan State University. He is the new car manager of Taylor Jeep Eagle.

The couple honeymooned in St. Lucia and reside in Huntington Woods. They met while attending Harrison High School.

BRUCKSIEKER-BARTH

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brucksieker of North Bend, Wash.,

announce the engagement of their daughter Jennifer Lyn to Brian Michael Barth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Barth of Farmington Hills.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of Central Michigan University with a bachelor's degree in communications.

The groom is a graduate of Central Michigan University with a bachelor's degree in community recreation and facilities management. He is employed as an accounting supervisor at the Summit at Snoqualmie in Washington state.

The couple will be married in June 1999 in Michigan.

ANNIVERSARY

HEARN 50TH

Richard and Dorothy Hearn will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary on June 19.

Richard has been retired from Burroughs Corp. since 1981 and is very active in ham radio, model airplanes and personal computing. Dorothy has been retired from Joyce's Doll House since 1995. She volunteers at the Detroit Baptist Manor and is an avid gardener. Both are very involved in North Farmington Community Church.

They have a son, Rick in Milford and a daughter, Sheryl Rank in Austin, Texas; two grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

SMITH-FRUSH

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Smith of Farmington Hills announce the

Pageant salutes silver anniversary

The 25th anniversary of Farmington Hills will get a special salute at the Miss Farmington/Hills scholarship pageant during the annual Farmington Founder's Day Festival.

Ten women will vie for the title and the chance to represent the Farmington area at the 1999 Miss Michigan pageant, a part of the Miss America scholarship program.

Sponsors include Contemporary Awards, Ural Interiors, Jazz's Deli, Dublin Optical, Focal Point Studios, Metre Bank, Hearts & Roses, Visions Salon and the Farmington Chamber.

Tickets to the Wednesday, July 8, program to be held at Vladimir's Banquet Hall on Grand River are $10 in advance or $12 at the door.

This year's program will have many surprises in store, including special entertainment and the annual raffle. Last year two round trip tickets to Phoenix, Arizona were raffled.

This year's raffle winner will be announced during the AfterGlow celebration upstairs, where there will be live entertainment and dancing.

A sellout is expected due to the 25th anniversary celebration, so contest organizers urge those interested to purchase tickets soon.

They are available at the Chamber of Commerce during regular business hours. Tickets to an after-glow party cost $5.
