The Sin Of Omission

Periodically, it is a good thing for everyone to examine their conscience and to reflect on their faults and wrongdoings. The libbe tells us that we all have sinned and have come short of the glory of God. Calling to mind our shortcomings, and asking for God's fogiveness, are necessary in order to become a better person and to receive God's Hotsing.

God's blessing.
Although it usually is quite easy to remember the tangible wrongs that we have done, we often forget about the sin of neglecting to do the good things that we know we should do. God's Godden Rule was the singular that we know we should do. God's Godden Rule with the singular that we know we have the singular that the singular that we have been able. Being a good friend mad getting involved, and the old adage words." Is good davice in helping us to avoid the sin of omission.

Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

K.I.V. James 4:17
