Auto/deer crashes down

For the first time since 1990.

For the first time since 1990, car-deer crashes have fallen in Michigan, according to auto insurers and state agencies. In 1997 there were 65,451 car-deer crashes, 4.2 percent fower than the 68,233 in 1996. The number of humans killed dropped from six to three in that year, though injuries rose slight-ier, ly. Officials credited more careful driving for the decrease. Here is what area counties

Simmons finished second to Heyniger among her hometown Rochester Schools voters, but strong showings elsewhere -tying with Scotf for first among Birmingham voters and finish-ing first in Bloomfield Hills, cat-apulted her to victory. Wiser finished first in West Bloomfield, where voting was somewhat lighter, but generally finished in the top three in all districts.

districts. Vaara, a former Clarkston Schools teacher and administra-tor, predictably finished first in his home district, but neither he nor Heyniger could break into the top three in too many dis-tricts outside their local bases.

Hore are unofficial district-by-district returns: The OCC election ran simulta-neously with local school district
