of the first team Division II all-state team as selected by the MHSAA. She is also a member of the Olympic Development Program state team.

The senior will attend the University of Michigan, where she will walk on to the soccer team.

Denton scored 11 goals and had three assists from her midfield position.

"She meant everything to our team," Ladywood coach Jeff Shuk said. "We could go as far as Meryl could take us."

"When she was on her game, we went places. She led more on the field than off the field. She has an exceptional touch and is a very good finisher."

Mary Gignac, midfielder, Mercy: Gignac was a big reason why the Mac (11-5) were runners-up in the Catholic League, running the show from her midfield position and helping at both ends of the field. The All-Catholic and all-district junior captain scored seven goals.

"Mary is a skilled player with good vision who controlled a lot of traffic in the middle," coach Deepak Shivman said.

"She's a very intelligent player and makes a lot of good, sound decisions. She organizes things offensively; she's basically an anchor for us and is an extremely hard worker."

Allison Campbell, forward, Stevenson:

The senior scored 117 career goals, a school record, including 49 this season. She also had 14 assists.

The state's Miss Soccer scored at least twice in 18 of 20 regular-season games the Spartans played this year and had one goal in the other two.

Campbell's ability to score, even though every team keyed on her, was a big factor in Stevenson's successful defense of its Division I state title. She was on the 1997 All-Observer team.

"Allison is the best finishing forward I've ever seen," said her coach, Jim Kimble. "Her determination and dedication are second to none."

"She'll be a big success at the University of Tennessee."

Lindsay Guskic, forward, Stevenson: Guskic scored 25 goals and had 10 assists and she's only a freshman. She'll inherit the finishing job Campbell leaves behind. She already has a year of experience in the Spartans' three-forward system.

Guskic was honored as a first-team Division I all-state selection by the MHSAA.

"Lindsay really added another offensive weapon to our team," coach Jim Kimble said. "While teams were watching Allison, Lindsay was winning games for us."

"She's a great athlete and a hard worker. She has a very bright future at Stevenson."

Anne Morrill, forward, Canton: It's not often someone makes the All-State Dream Team as a freshman, which Morrill did.

And with good reason. She scored 26 goals and assisted on 13 for the Chiefs. An All-Western Lakes first-team pick, Morrill is also an under-16 ODP player and a member of the national ODP talent pool.

"She was very, very good," said Canton coach Don Smith, whose team finished 16-3-2 with a No. 5 state rating. "She scored against everyone, including Stevenson, and she didn't do it by hanging around the goal. She worked."

Missy Simons, forward, Salem: Perhaps the best way to describe Simons, according to her coach, Doug Lundfeld, is just the way he used her. "She was the 'x-factor' for us," he said.

Simons, now a graduated senior, filled in at many positions for the Rocks, but her play this year may have been the most impressive, considering Simons had played little forward previously, either at the club or school level. But when Lundfeld spoke to her about it last winter, she filled the role well. Simons finished with 21 goals and nine assists, second in scoring only to Sarskalan.

Her accomplishments earned her a selection to the Division I all-state first team by the MHSAA and first-team all-WLAA. In the fall, Simons has accepted a scholarship to play for Wartford College in Spartanburg, S.C., and NCAA Division I school.

"Missy had her best year since I took over the team," said Lundfeld, having just completed his third season. Simons also played sweeper, marking back and midfield for Salem. "This is the fittest she's been with me (as coach)."

"She was the best and most dangerous of our forwards, and she relished that role for herself."

"I really think we would have struggled to score without her up there."

Kersten Conklin, forward, Churchill: The three-year varsity player scored 26 goals and assisted on 11 others. She also plays on the top-flight Livonia Metro team.

Conklin was on the All-Observer second team in 1997 and was third-team Division I all-state this year.

"A major portion of our offense went through Kersten," said her coach, Chad Campau. "She has a great burst of speed and was able to beat a defender one-on-one."

"She did a nice job as a forward for us and was also a very unselfish player."
