"Over the years, we've won contests for being the most alike many times," said Janet.
All twins and multiple births (triplets, quadruplets and more) are invited to the twins convention. Events included at this year's event are visits to Livonia Spree and special programs at the Livonia Marriott, 17100 Laurel Park Drive North, which plays host to the convention for the second year in a row. Spree offers a carnival, food booths, dances, concerts and other activities, centered at Ford Field, Farmington Road and Lyndon near Five Mile.

Cozy Classic will benefit St. Vincent & Sarah Fisher Center

Golf lovers are invited to help a great cause, win some fine prizes and play with former Detroit Pistons great Isiah Thomas at the Premier Cozy Classic on Sunday, July 12, at the Greystone Golf Club in Romeo.
A shotgun start is at 1 p.m.
The Cozy Classic will feature 18 holes of golf, a four-person scramble, beer and soft drinks, dinner, an open bar, and a live auction with guest celebrity auctioneer Mike Popowski, Michigan State University sports legend.
Prizes will be awarded to the top three teams, player closest to the pin, and the player with the longest drive. Special guests also include Michael Stone, WDFN sports personality and Greg Keiser, also a Michigan State sports legend.
All proceeds from the Cozy Classic will benefit the St. Vincent and Sarah Fisher Center of Farmington Hills in memory of St. Regis alum Jay Cosgrove. The St. Vincent and Sarah Fisher Center provides services to 1,000 severely abused children and families in crisis throughout southeastern Michigan annually.
