Post 346 routs Milford, 9-3

Shawn Morrison pitched a com-plete game and Jon Rosplerski hit his third home run in as many games for Farmington Post 346 Sun-games for Farmington Post 346 Sun-day.

Their performances helped their team defeat visiting Milford in the second game of a scheduled double-header at Farmington High School, 9-3.

Rospierski, who hit a pair of three-Kospiciski, who his a pair to lineer run homers in provious games, pro-duced a two-run shot in the seventh inning to finish the scoring. Morrison allowed just four hits and three walks while striking out nine batters. All three Milford runs nine batters. All three Millord runs were unearme.

Post 346 never trailed, scoring the first runs of the game in the second inning. One run scored on Joe Paleta's ground ball and Ryan Wing raced home on a wild pitch.

Farmington (6-0) made it 3-0 in the third when Bill Kandillian doubled to score Carson, who had walked and advanced on a wild nitch.

Leading 3-2 in entering the fourth,
Post 346 scored four runs to erase any doubt about the outcome.
Mark Churella started the inning with a leadoff homer, Paletta had an RBI single and Carson hit a two-run homer. Carson was 3-for-3, Tom Judd and Churella 2-for-3.

The first game resulted in a forfeit victory for Post 346 when Milford didn't have enough players.
