School budget racks up awards

Farmington Public Schools' newly adopted 1998-99 budget includes a list of top achievements for 1997-98.

Significant among them, is the district being the first in Michigan to ever win both the Meritorious Budget Award and Certificate of Excellence for its financial statements, both awarded by the Association of School Business Officials.

The district also was named a "Gold Medal" school district by Expansion Management magazine.

Also listed: Farmington High School's selection as one of Michigan's 14 "blue ribbon" exemplary secondary schools; Frostbyte Communications and FPS School/Community Relations Office's dual effort to win the Award of Excellence for their entry of the FPS web site in the National School Public Relations Association Publications and Electronic Media Contest; the district library media program's selection as 1997 State Media Program of the Year by the Michigan Association of Media in Education.
