

Main Street: A mix of storefronts and restaurants distinguish downtown Plymouth.

Meet and eat in Plymouth

Dining Fast or Slow

From burgers to creme brulee, the many varieties of food and restaurants in the Plymouth area are sure to satisfy everyone's cravings. The new kid on the block is Cafe Giverny, 370 Main, which serves crepes packed with chicken, vegetables, fruit or other yummy ingredients. Its cute yellow and white-striped umbrellas and comfortable furnishings make this one of the hottest spots in town.

A taste of English fare can be had at the Sweet Afton Tea Room, 450 Forest, which is open from 11 a.m.-5 p.m. Monday through Saturday.

Fare with a French flair draws diners to the elegant Cafe Bon Homme, 844 Penniman.

The Plymouth Landing, 340 Main, and Station 885, 885 Starkweather, also are favorite eateries. Patrons at the Cozy Cafe, 15 Forest Place, will find delicious soups, quiches, pizza and sandwiches, while at Harvest Moon, 545 Forest, fresh juices, vegetarian and dairy-free fare reign.

The Side Street Pub's claim to fame is that it's Plymouth's "only sports bar." Locals love the half-pound ground rounds (88¢) and the Side Street Burger (95¢). A nostalgic blue and white sign out front catches the eye of those heading into the Box Bar and Cafe, 777 Ann Arbor Trail.

In the mood for a dog? Pull up a seat at Uncle Frank's Chicago & Coney, 550 Forest. Cones, sundaes and pastries lure dessert fans to the American Pie, Antique Ice Cream Parlor, 747 Ann Arbor Trail.

Time your Plymouth sojourn close to the lunch or dinner hour and you can catch a wonderful Italian meal on your way out of town at Ermete's, 41661 Plymouth Road. Candlelit tables and a European atmosphere beckon those celebrating a special occasion or craving some of the best spaghetti sauces in
