Good, unclean fun

Mud-caked: Getting into the festivities of Mud Day in Edward Hines Park last week are Brandon Dwyer, 4, of Farmington Hills, with his aunt, Donna, and cousin, Kayla Bobcean, 2, of Canton. The three stopped their dirty frolicking to watch the mud races. More than 300 Wayne County children were an absolute mess Tuesday as they frolicked, raced and played at the annual Wayne County Parks event.

You'll Find Out What Will Happen With a Living Trust...

• Your estate will transfer quickly to your family upon your death, without the expense of probate.

• If you're married and your estate is worth less than $1.25 million, there will be no federal estate taxes to pay.

• You'll avoid a conservatorship if you become incapacitated—so your estate will be run as you see fit.

You'll Find Out What Will Happen Without a Living Trust (even if you have a will)...

• Your estate will go through probate, which could take months or even years, and probate fees could be substantial.

• If you're married and your estate is over $625,000 net, without proper planning your family may owe federal estate taxes of up to 55%.

Sponsored by: Law Office of Jeffrey R. Saunders. Attorney Jeffrey R. Saunders speaks to area residents about living trusts and proper estate planning. Mr. Saunders has practiced law for 10 years and his practice focuses on estate planning. He is a member of the American Academy of Estate Planning Attorneys—and his seminars on living trusts are said to be informative & easy-to-understand.
