headpiece held an illusion veil which extended the full length of the train. The bride carried a bouquet of red roses.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Donald Conser, of Salem, and the bridesmaids were Bonnie Parks, sister of the bride, and Elizabeth Grenfell, of Cleveland.

The honor attendant wore a copen blue satin slipper-length A-line gown, and the others similar gowns of cell blue. They carried white and blue chrysanthemums backed by russet fall leaves.

The best man was John Fleck, of Farmington, and the ushers were Michael Lalich, of Grand Island, N.Y. and L.L. Douglas Henry of Farmington.

The mother of the bride wore an A-line, turquoise silk ensemble, and the bridegroom's mother wore a silk, moss green and blue brocade dress.

The newlyweds spent their honeymoon in the New England states and will live in Alliance, Ohio.

The bride attended Cleveland State University and the bridegroom graduated from Farmington High School and received his B.S. and M.S. from Michigan Technological University, Houghton.

Westland Party Marks 50 Years

A dinner reception Saturday, Oct. 26, in Gourmet Hall, Westland, marked the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Philip E. Rhodes, of Southgate.

The couple received a Papal Blessing in St. Joseph Catholic Church, Southgate, the following day. Mrs. George Donnelly, of Livonia, is one of the couple's four children.

Sorrows Scene Of Rites For Farmington Couple

Catherine Marie DeMattia and Terry Dean McDowell exchanged marriage vows in a late afternoon ceremony Friday, Oct. 11, in Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic church, Farmington.

Msgr. Thomas Beahan officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. DeMattia, of Drake Road, Farmington, and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil A. McDowell, of Cloverdale Avenue, Farmington, are parents of the bridegroom.

A reception in the DeMattia home followed.

THE BRIDE wore a white satin gown with lace bodice, long sleeves and high neckline. Her veil was elbow-length.

Mary DeMattia, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor, stepping in at the last moment in place of the bride's twin, Susan DeMattia, who came down with mumps two days before the wedding.

Bridesmaids were Sue McDowell and Patty Topper, and the bride's twin nieces, Donna and Debby DeMattia, were flower girls.

The attendants wore gowns with deep red velvet bodices and pink faille skirts.

Wig Care Talk Set For CWC

A demonstration of the use and care of hair pieces will be presented at the November meeting of the Northwest and Suburban Detroit Christian Women's Club, Tuesday, Nov. 12, at 12:30 p.m. in Devan Gables Restaurant.

Mrs. Wayne Ingold, of Grand Rapids, will be the speaker. A licensed lay speaker for the Methodist church, Mrs. Ingold appears throughout central Michigan giving dramatic monologue readings appropriate to the season. She is a graduate of Heidelberg College in Ohio with a degree in vocal music.

Music for the luncheon will be presented by Margaret Lon-dal, a featured soprano soloist with the Max Deary Singers. She received her B.A. degree in music from Wayne State University, where she studied under Avery Crow and appeared frequently as soloist. Since graduation she has appeared as soloist with the Voice of Christian Youth and at numerous banquets and church specials.

Child care is available during the luncheon.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. E.T. Nelson, 16764 Lela Drive, Redford, or Mrs. Port Stewart, 34402 West Nine Mile Road, Farmington.

Auction, Film Set By Alpha Xi Delta

The Western Wayne County Alumnae Chapter of the Alpha Xi Delta sorority will hold its monthly meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 12, at 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Dwight A. Lewis, 23646 Rockford, Dearborn.

The program will include a Detroit Free Press Action Line film and a silent auction of member's hand-work articles. Proceeds will be used for the local chapter's philanthropic project, the children at the Plymouth State Home.

MRS. VICTOR ZAMPA (Sylvia Taylor)

Ann Arbor Is Setting For Vows

The Rev. Frank P. Lane officiated as his cousin, Sylvia M. Taylor, was married to Victor M. Zampa in a double ring ceremony in St. Mary's Chapel, Ann Arbor, Saturday, Oct. 19.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Taylor, of Houghton, N.Y., and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Zampa, of Livonia.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a silk organza gown with appliques of reembridged lace, pearls, and sequins, fashioned on the bodice, fingertip sleeves, and cathedral length train.

Mrs. Edward Shaw served as her sister's matron of honor. She selected a gold Italian textured silk A-line gown with elbow-length sleeves.

A double Dior bow formed the headpiece. Her corsage was made of wheat, leaves, and gold and bronze mums.

Ann J. Miller, Sharon Polster, and Sally Holden served as bridesmaids.

Henry Zampa was the best man. Ushers included Robert Bernhard, Jake Hurick, and Stephen Taylor.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Taylor selected a wine velvet dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Zampa wore a powder blue crepe dress with a jacket and matching accessories.

The bride attended Temple University and the University of Michigan. The bridegroom attended the University of Detroit and the American Institute of Architects.

The couple will live in Ann Arbor.
