

It's Time For Great Christmas Bazaar Shopping

ST. GENEVIEVE WORKERS — Mrs. Bob Thomas, president of the Altar Rosary Society of St. Genevieve Catholic Church, Livonia, and Mrs. James Oliver, boutique chairman, look over some of the wares to be offered Nov. 8 to 10 at the church located at 28933 Jamison, Livonia. An antique booth will be included, and young people of the church will serve refreshments. The hours will be 1 to 8 p.m. Friday and 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

WOMEN AT WORK — The first bazaar in more than a decade at Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian Church, Livonia, cessioned many workshop sessions like this one.

Early Christmas shoppers in Observerland have never had it so good. That's because church women in the area have never had it so busy. The reason for both the busyness and the good shopping is, of course, the abundance of church holiday bazaars popping up all over, many of them within the next week. They will feature all sorts of handmade and home-baked goodies by the ladies of the churches, who have put in long hours of work.

Many of the bazaars and fairs also will include white elephant booths, children's shops, Christmas novelties and snacks and meals.

Reports on just some of the bazaars can be found on this page. Those equipped with track shoes are invited to take them all in.

FOR A BEAUTIFUL CHRISTMAS — Mrs. Glenda Wilkerson and Mrs. Norma Kearfoot, of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Livonia, prepare for their bazaar Nov. 7.

Rosedale Stresses Fellowship

Fellowship has been the theme and purpose of the Christmas Bazaar set for Friday, Nov. 15, from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. in the Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian Church, West Chicago at Hubbard, Livonia. "The whole church was worked on the project," said Mrs. Nancy Fife, of the church staff. "That's really the main purpose, and from that viewpoint it's already a success." On sale will be snacks in a gourmet corner, cookbooks, hand-painted china, home accessories, flower arrangements, Christmas decorations, aprons and paper flowers. There will be a fashion show and luncheon at 1 p.m., and a family dinner served from 5:00 to 7 p.m. Baby-sitting will be available throughout the day. The church plans to use proceeds from the bazaar to redecorate its chapel.

St. Andrew Women Offer New Avenue Of Shops

St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, 16860 Hubbard, Livonia, will hold its eighth annual Christmas Bazaar, featuring the traditional "Avenue of Shops," from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 7. "Women" of the church have had preparations going for more than a year. The booths will include boutique and junior boutique shops as well as a country kitchen, flea market and Christmas shop. The boutique shop, under the direction of Mrs. Howard Dow and Mrs. Gary Frye, will exhibit handcrafted gifts ranging from articles made of wood to artistic floral arrangements. For the youngsters, the junior boutique shop will also be featured this year. From these sets to baby clothes, Mrs. Harold Naiteloh, boutique co-chairman, promises the young people will be able to check off their gift items. The Country Kitchen will be well stocked with delicious jams, jellies, candies, baked goods and home-canned items offered by Mrs. Michael Bash and Mrs. David Sari.

A new shop this year is headed by Mrs. Margaret Deacon and will feature gift items only for the kitchen. The flea market will feature white elephants, antiques and clothes that have been collected and sorted by the women under the direction of Mrs. Kenneth Mitzberg and Mrs. Milton Becker. The Christmas shop headed by Mrs. Robert Wilkinson will have ornaments, centerpieces, and wreaths.

Traditional Chili Sauce, Coffee Cake Featured

The hum of sewing machines, and the fragrance of chili sauce and coffee cake have been omnipresent in Aldergrass United Methodist Church this fall as women prepared for their Church Fair. It will be held Saturday, Nov. 9, from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. The home made chili-sauce and coffee cake have become a traditional specialty of the Country Pantry Booth, under the direction of Mrs. William S. Miller, Mrs. Don Dean, and Mrs. Charles Stinchcomb this year. In addition, members have prepared a display of home-made jams, jellies, preserves, pickles, corn-relish and fudge to supplement the supply of home baked goods.

ments and winter bouquets. For the do-it-yourselfers, dried and pressed flowers, pine cones, drift wood and houseplants will be available. Unusual features of the store include a selection of stuffed Goshes (a sort of mod "Humpty-Dumpty"). Luncheon from 11:30 to 1:30 p.m. will be served with drinks available in between. Game booths will be open for children and free nursery care for the little ones provided for by the Girl Scout Marine Troop 1175. The church is located at 10000 Beech Daley.

4-H Awards To Be Given In Chicago

The 4-H Clubs claim 26-million alumni, according to the Cooperative Extension Service which supervises 4-H in all 50 states. Four-H seeks to honor a segment of these alumni each year through the national 4-H Alumni Recognition awards program. The program, set up 16 years ago, is sponsored by the Ohio State Extension Chemical Corporation. Outstanding men and women are singled out for county, state and national recognition. Appropriate awards are presented at special events. One such event is the annual national 4-H Alumni banquet held in Chicago during the National 4-H Congress, Dec. 4. This year four men and four women will be presented with a gold 4-H key, the national award. They previously had won the state 4-H placque award.

SEVERAL SUMMER workshops under the direction of Mrs. Douglas Renne and Mrs. Jack Harold have supplied the Christmas trims shop with and home decorations, as well as gift items made in the Christmas motif. Under the direction of Mrs. Edward Miller and Mrs. Joseph Murray, the nature booth will display dried flower arrangements and winter bouquets. For the do-it-yourselfers, dried and pressed flowers, pine cones, drift wood and houseplants will be available. Unusual features of the store include a selection of stuffed Goshes (a sort of mod "Humpty-Dumpty"). Luncheon from 11:30 to 1:30 p.m. will be served with drinks available in between. Game booths will be open for children and free nursery care for the little ones provided for by the Girl Scout Marine Troop 1175. The church is located at 10000 Beech Daley.

Meat Spending

Approximately 25 cents of each dollar spent for food goes for red meats in the United States. In 1967, per capita consumption of beef in the U.S. was 105 pounds.

Thai Mobiles Are Featured In GC Bazaar

Christmas mobiles, hand made from palm leaves and sent from Thailand, will be featured at the Garden City Presbyterian Church's annual bazaar scheduled Saturday, Nov. 9, from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. The mobiles were made by a Thai woman named Pongri and are being sold through Mrs. Ralph Michener, who has co-ordinated with her and worked to help her family. Money brought by the mobiles sale will be used to help the mother and five children buy a small piece of land and build a little house. Also on sale at the church fair will be a wide variety of handmade gifts, toys, Christmas novelties and boutique items. Grab bags, baked goods, used books and clothing and Presbyterian Meat and Dessert Specials will be featured. Special sitting service and continuous showing of cartoon shows is planned to give mothers of young children a chance to shop. Circle chairman supervising the bazaar are Edith Macfie, Alice Dillon, Edith Johnson and Rose Beatty.

A fall festival featuring booths, games, and refreshments will be held in St. Raphael's Parish Hall, 5875 Meridian, on Nov. 15, 16, and 17. Hours will be from 7 to 10 p.m. on Friday and noon to 10 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday.
