

Clarkston's vittle statistics

Pull up a turquoise chair or slide into a booth at the Olde Village Gafe, on the corner of Máin and Washington, and you can order a hearty breakfast at just about any time. Diners seated along an old-fashioned counter hear the aplash of sizzling fries while they watch fastorder cooks create $3.75 tuna melts, $3.50 patty melts and $2.45 hamburgers. In the mood for sweets? Sample the delicious muffins, doughnuts and cookies at the Village Bake Shop, open daily and as early as 6 a.m. on Saurdays and Sundays. Pienickers can spread a blanket of find a table at several seconic spots in downtown's Depot Park, which boasts a pretty ivier and a precious gazebo. And the best place to find items for your pienic basket is at Rudy's Quality Market (9 S. Main St.). A full deli counter with lots of sandwich fixes lures shoppers to the small grocery store. Specialty take-home foods of interest include Elenn's pastas. Produced in Auburn Hills by a family-owned company, the fresh noodies are delicious. Stacked on the deli counter are several jors of Cafo Cortina pasta sauces. The Farmington, Hills family-owned rostaurant is famous for its delectable pasta sauces and has just recently introduced them at a few retail specialty shops in the area. Rudy's impressive wine collection includes a wonderful variety of Michigan selections. St. Julian, Leelanau Cellars (Summer Sunset is a nice timely choice), Good Harpor and Chateau Chantal winery products fill Rudy's shelves.

The Clarkston Cafe (18 Main St.), which is open every day, serves up a wider range of fare on its green-and-white-checked table cluths, including seafoods, steaks and more. Like a New England roadside inn, the cafe is a comfortable, casual place and now seats diners outside as well.
At 50 Main St., the Union General Store and Sweet Shop Cafe (note: the acclaimed Royal Oak-based Ray's ice cream is available here!), peddles everything from cappuccinos to shampoos and gourmet foods. Next door, at the Clarkston Union, dozens of beer varieties and a great sandwich and entree menu draw a regular local crowd.

On your way into or out of town, be sure to stop at the same read town. The same read way the same read that turns into Main Street and is the same road your way. Big steaks, grilled shrimp, pork chops and chicken dishes, caesar salads and soups get rave reviews.
