Fury from D1

Price to allow Shrewsbury to rest a bruised knee. Instead for the Fury's play at midfield were Andrew Hathaway, Phil Lechowicz and Phillipps, while Kruse, Kolley, Young and Matt Stachura shut down the Storm with a stifling defense.
 The third game pitted the Fury against another undefeated team from Okemos. The Fury prevailed in another shutout, 2-0.
 After dogged midfield work on a hot afternoon, Mukhtar took a Young throw-in, dribbled past four defenders and scored to give the Fury a 1-0 halftime lead.
 Horr sealed the fate of Okemos with a blistering, 20-yard shot to the lower left of the net after getting a perfect dish from Street.
 Shrewsbury was back in net and the defense of Kruse, Young, Motoyer, Horner, Mooney and Stachura formed an impenetrable wall against the Okemos offense.
 Following a one-hour rain delay Sunday morning, Farmington squared off against the Traverse City Rage in a semi-final game, which the Fury won, 3-0.
 Horr put the Fury on the scoreboard with a one-touch chip over the keeper after receiving a touch pass from Price.
 With a one-goal halftime lead, the Fury attacked and sent the Rage reeling when Mukhtar converted a Street pass into a goal at the 3:50 mark.
 Refusing to ease up, the Fury continued to press the attack. After a hard foul on Street about 30 yards from the opposing goal, Horr chipped over the Rage defensive wall and Street headed the ball home.
 The final game pitted the Fury against the undefeated Sterling

Heights Mustangs, who took the play to the Fury early but eventually were defeated in overtime, 2-0.
 Farmington's defense refused to crack against the early pressure. Kruse, Motoyer, Hopper and Stachura held the line in front of Shrewsbury, and the game remained scoreless after 40 minutes.
 In the second half, the Fury continued to pressure the Mustangs, who were unable to break through the Fury's defense. Horr scored the winning goal in the 55th minute.
 In the first of two, five-minute overtimes, the Mustangs appeared to favor a shootout and fell back into a defensive shell to try to frustrate the Fury.

 In a bold move, the Fury coaches pushed Street, Mukhtar, Horr and Janveja forward in an all-out push. At 1:24 of overtime, Horr intercepted a Mustang pass and fed Street, who spotted Janveja breaking up the middle. Janveja sped past the Sterling Heights defense and shot a bullet by the keeper.
 The Fury controlled the mid-field and the desperate Mustangs committed another costly error in the second overtime.

 Deep in their own territory, the Mustangs tried to throw the ball in but found all receivers tightly marked. Mukhtar stole the inbound pass, went one-on-one with the keeper and found the net with his shot.
 The Fury now disbands until the indoor season. The tournament also included teams from Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Ontario.

Dentistry in the 90s
 by Herbert M. Gardner, D.D.S.
PREMATURE THINKING
 Mothers-to-be have one more reason to schedule regular dental appointments during their pregnancies. According to researchers at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, pregnant women with periodontal (gum) disease are more likely to have pre-term babies (born at less than 37 weeks) or babies with low weight (under five pounds). In fact, when researchers evaluated the cases of 124 pregnant women, they found that 14 percent of those who had periodontal disease predated their pregnancies. (91%) of them were found to be a factor of seven. Other factors were taken into account and were not deemed responsible for the increased risk. It is thought that increased levels of prostaglandins, which are linked with labor and delivery, are also linked with active gum disease. We recommend regular professional cleanings whether or not you may be pregnant. When is the last time you had a professional dental checkup? At LIVONIA VILLAGE DENTAL ASSOCIATES, we are currently accepting new patients and welcome you to schedule a visit to schedule a dental checkup for the whole family. We're located at 19171 Merriman Road, where you will be pleased with our "personal touch" philosophy and our dedication to your complete dental health. Smile as our thought that increased levels of
