All was hardly touched as he took the hand-off from Tubaro, who alternated at quarterback every other play with Gorney. Allis led all rushers with 71 yards on 12 carries.

Actually, it was just a quick dive and Allis has got feet like you wouldn't believe," Lewis said. "He cut up the hole on the right, bounced left and was gone."

The East coaching staff chose to alternate Tubaro and Gorney every play instead of every series or quarter upon the suggestion of East assistant coach Don Stuckey from Detroit Denby.

Walled Lake Western's Frank Stanford (Western Michigan) took a couple snaps but mostly played wide receiver, catching a 48-yard TD pass from Gorney in the second half.

The idea was to have each quarterback bring a play in from the sidelines to limit the confusion between plays and to give each equal time.

It seemed to work as they combined to complete nine of 20 passes for 171 yards and two touchdowns. Tubaro completed four of nine passes for 86 yards, including a 12-yard TD pass to his roommate for the week, wide receiver Dave Kircus (Grand Valley State) from Imlay City.

"I wasn't as nervous as I thought I'd be," Tubaro said. "Once I got out here, I remembered how it felt. We had a lot of talent out here."

"I didn't throw very good this week, even in practice."

My mechanics were all messed up, and I'm going to have to work on that."

Tubaro scrambled for a 19-yard gain in the first half but paid for trying to get out of the pocket late in the game when he was sacked and dragged along the astro-turf. They say Tubaro leaves everything on the field when he plays, and it happened literally on that play.

"It's all right, there's just no skin on it (his shin)," said Tubaro, who also was nursing a sore back after the game.

Judging by all the emblems from other schools Tubaro wore on his helmet to go with the CC logo, he enjoyed the week's camaraderie. Call him a team's player.

"I enjoyed the part with the teammates more than the football," he said.

Lewis said "both quarterback backs played great" despite the shuffling system and the East team jelled as the week progressed.

A victory in his final game as a high school player can't compare to the Class A title he helped Harrison win, but it was memorable just the same.

"I guess you can't really ask for anything better," Lewis said. "At the beginning of the week, there were guys with different backgrounds and you could see clicks forming, but the week brought everyone together."

"It was fun getting to know different kinds of people. We had some from the city, some from the suburbs and even some from the country."

Area bowlers among Fame candidates

TEH-PIN ALLEY

The Greater Detroit Fame committee met this week to consider this year's nominees.

Those bowlers up for consideration are in the men's category, Ken Kossick (Canton), Fred McClain, Jerry Penna, Lee Snow (Farmington Hills), Harry Sullivan, Larry Walker (Garden City) and Dave Bernhardt.

In the women's category, those nominated include Marilyn Lueck Frederick (Canton), Cheryl Stipeck (Redford) and Sandra Winbiger.

Veteran's category hopefuls are Syl Thiel and Jarv Wohlke. The lone nominee for the Thomas McKay Award is Dorothy Thompson. Nominated for meritorious service are Doug Bradford, Margaret Restivo, Warren Teubert (Redford) and Lewis Snad.

To be selected out of this illustrious group, one must have performed on the lanes above and beyond the usual for a season's length of time. Victories in league and tournament play are heavily considered.

Using Ken Kossick as an example, he has bowled in the All-Stars for 16 years, a member of the championship Lansing Big Boy team, 19 300 games, 12 299 games, eight 298 games and seven 300 series.

He has captured five Michigan State titles, several Greater Detroit Bowling Association city titles, All-City team five times including King of Bowlers in 1988-87, and 1992-93 with 94.5 points (an all-time record), 1987 GDBA bowler of the year, 1997 Masters winner, high individual average in the Thursday Travel All-Stars with 1983 (223) and 1985 (228).

This is not to say that Ken would be elected, the others have very strong credentials also. It's all up to the election committee.

For anyone who has ever visited the GDBA Hall, it is located in Thunderbowl Lanes in Allen Park.

It's well worth the trek for any bowling enthusiast, a nostalgic trip and the showcases are filled with the individual plaques and trophies, going from past to present with the names and faces that have made it to the Hall of Fame.

Tim Wiczorek is the proprietor of the Rack Attack pro shop in Thunderbird Lanes on Maple Road in Troy.

Tim has been a feature story in this column, having had to give up his aspirations for the Pro Bowlers Tour because of physical disabilities, and how he has come back to help teach others how to bowl better.

He has developed an advanced video/computerized system for instruction that is a look into the next century.

Carrying it another step, Tim will be hosting an advanced school for all bowlers who wish to improve their game in this high tech fashion.

The date is Oct. 4 and costs $85 to sign up, ($100 after Sept. 7). The class is limited to 50 entrants.

There will be several USA-certified instructors for the session which will run from 8:45 a.m. to approximately 6 p.m.

The staff includes Randy Hart, Jeff Briggs, Randy Harvey, Mark Toboy, Jeff McCormick and George Bukowski, all Silver level in addition to Tim Wiczorek, Bronze level.

The class will be on the lanes at Thunderbird and using the computer/video analysis.

It's a sure-fire way to step your game up a notch or two.

Terek wins Canadian decathlon title

TRACK

The next time Paul Terek travels to Canada, customs agents may want to do a more thorough job of interrogation.

The Livonia Franklin High graduate, who just completed his freshman year at Michigan State University, crossed the border to capture the men's open decathlon competition Friday at the Canadian National Track and Field Championships in Montreal.

The event, held at the Quad Robillard Sports Complex (formerly the 1976 Montreal Olympics Village), also served as Canada's Commonwealth Games Trials.

Terek, one of three junior and three senior U.S. competitors invited to compete, bested 29 other decathletes with a total of 6,932 points.

Eastern Michigan's Dave Stewart, an Ontario native, was second with 6,864 and David Popo, a USA competitor, gained third.

Terek posted a personal best in the high jump with a leap of 6 feet, 2 inches, set indoors (due to heavy rains on Thursday).

He was sixth after three events, but made his move on Friday.

Terek cleared 16-2 in his specialty, the pole vault, good enough for 880 points.

He threw the javelin 53.63 meters (175-10), picking up 642 more points, and surpassed Stewart by going 4:40.73 in the 1,500-meter run, the 10th and final event.

Among his other performances included: 11.33 in the 100 dash; 21-6 in the long jump; 37-8 in the shot put; 52.03 in the 400; 123-10 in the discus; and 17.22 in the 110 hurdles.

In June's U.S. Junior Nationals held at Southern Illinois-Edwardsville, Terek finished a somewhat disappointing fifth. But he was able to set a personal best in the javelin (189-9).

He redeemed himself, however, in Montreal by leaping the top two U.S. Junior National finishers.

As a senior at Franklin, Terek broke the state record for all classes in the pole vault by clearing 16-6.

He also made a strong debut, as a freshman at MSU, breaking the Spartan indoor and outdoor (17-3) pole vault records.

At the Big Ten Championships held in May at Ohio State, Terek finished second with 7,206 points to Wisconsin senior Greg Gilla's 7,325.

During that meet, Terek ran personal bests in the 400 (49.79) and 1,500 (4:33.04).
