OF 28 years and have three wonders ful adult children. Our relationship has never been maintain our family and is believe that some of that can be attributed to our consistent practice of faith. Over the years, the intensity of our sexual activity has dwindled to the point where our sex life is practically nonexistent. After his last check-up, Joe's dector prescribed Viagra. Joe is esthared years ago. I am confused by my reaction, which has been less than enthusiastic.

orectile dysfunction. It is not surprising then to discover that Vingra has become the most successful prescription drug in history. For millions of mon like Joe, Vingra seems like nothing short of a wonder pill! As time goes on, it is becoming clear that reawakening sexual cutualism may have some

As time goes on, it is becoming clear that reawakening sexual enthusinsm may have some unpredictable and chootic side effects for many couples. Initially this drug was intended for use by men with impotence and crectile dysfunction caused by physiological conditions such as diabetes, high blood pressure and multiple electrosis.

Once Vingra eliminates a physical explanation for sexual inactivity, the real work of a relationship begins. Partners must begin to look within themselves and explore their feelings. Some may discover that erectile dysfunction is a symptom of a more significant relationship roblem. There may be more than an erection that is missing. The following are frequently cited causes for low sexual desire: undergoosed for low sexual desire: undergoosed dependence, childhood sexual trauma, spouse

How a couple kisses for example provides for therapists an open window into finding out significant information. Issues of self-esteem, intimety, maturity and acceptance archange. For example, a frustrated husband complains that his wife will not let him kiss here on the lips and that instead she moves her face to one side so that he ends up kissing her check. This evasive action, turning her head, can be interpreted as an expression of her unspoken can the service of the control of th
