Fest celebrates Warner Bros.' 75th anniversary

Warner Brothers is celebrating its 75th anniversary with a festival featuring 31 of their most beloved films.

The Landmark Main was a last minute addition to the list of theaters chosen for the festival, and Robert Tschann, general manager of the Main and Landmark Maple Theater in Bloomfield, is excited.

"Certain movies fit in with memories," he said. "The Adventures of Robin Hood, is one of my favorites. I've seen it on TV hundreds of times, but never on the big screen. It reminds me of afternoons I spent with my grandma watching old movies on TV."

Teacher's man is a little disappointed, too. "Because I'll be working I won't be able to see as many films as I'd like," he said.
