

The family with young children that is without sickness in the house now and then is rare, and so it is important that the head of the household should be prepared to meet the emergencies that arise. A child with a serious ailment needs a doctor, it is true, but in the majority of instances a mother's waiting and watching from some intestinal trouble, usually constipation.

There is no sense in giving it a pill or a dose of medicine containing an opiate, nor is flushing of the bowels to be always recommended. Rather give it a small dose of a mild, but powerful laxative, like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which, by cleaning out the bowels and strengthening the little stomach muscles, will immediately correct the trouble.

This is not alone our opinion but that of Mrs. N. H. Mead of Freeport, Kan., whose granddaughter has given the following account of her recovery: "I was a very sick child, with a colic, and it is to her children and takes it herself. It is sold in fifty cent and one dollar bottles at every drug store, but if you do not test it on your family before you buy it send your address to Dr. J. C. Caldwell and he will forward a trial bottle." Write to Dr. J. C. Caldwell, address him Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 402 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

The Halloween social given by the Branch of the Vine at the Presbyterian church Friday evening of last week was a success in every way. The church parlors were appropriately and tastefully decorated and presented an altogether delightful picture. The reception committee, of whom the central figure was "Si Sundgrass," impersonated by Roy Tupper, certainly did themselves proud and deserve no end of praise for the manner in which they performed their part. The proceeds amounted to $53.

Miss Lottie Davison delightfully entertained a number of her young friends at a Halloween party Tuesday evening at her home. Joy reigned rampant until a late hour, for little folks, when all regretfully departed for home, bearing with them a little souvenir, in the shape of some toy as a memento of the happy evening. On the way home, the spirits of the happy crowd were considerably dampened when they were treated to a "show bath" by someone who mistook them for the "witches" who had been committing depredations in that vicinity just previous to their arrival.
