

Habitat Foundation's work benefits state fish, wildlife

Founded in 1982 by Russell Bengel, the Michigan Wildlife Habitat Foundation has been restoring wildlife and fish habitat in Michigan at an unparalleled pace.

The mission statement of the MWHF declares: "We in the Foundation resolve to bequeath future generations a world full of natural experiences. To do so will require the reversal of many detrimental changes and the restoration of degraded fish and wildlife habitats."

"We will endeavor to complete worthwhile habitat improvement projects in a cost-effective manner. We will utilize volunteers in unique ways and form innovative partnerships to work for wildlife."

To date, the foundation and its cooperators have spent millions of dollars and volunteered thousands of hours of time to restore and improve habitat.

Many of the projects have taken place right here in southeastern Michigan.

Some of the local projects the MWHF has contributed to include the bottom draw on Paint Creek at Lake Orion; the Backyard Wildlife Demonstration Area at the Detroit Zoo; restoration of the Drayton Plains fish rearing ponds; fish habitat improvements on the Rouge River in Southfield; turkey restoration in southeastern Michigan; and the Oakland County Nesting Meadows project.

Boat Show reminder
If you've contemplated purchasing a boat in recent months make a point to stop by Boat Show USA, which runs through today at Metro Beach Metropark in Mount Clemens.

This huge show features over 1,000 boats ranging in size from rowboats and inflatables to 70-foot yachts and sailboats. Some of the bigger boats are docked right in the water on Lake St. Clair.

Along with the large variety of boats the show also features 150 exhibitors with displays of sails, rigging, electronics, boating clothing, marine insurance, financial service and other related merchandise.

And it's all at one location so you don't have to drive all over the countryside to compare prices and amenities. The show runs noon-5 p.m. with admission $7 for adults and $1 for children (12 and under).

Metro Beach is located on Lake St. Clair at the end of Metropolitan Parkway (16 Mile Road).
