Get Off That Lazy Chair

Of all the gifts bestowed on us by God, including wisdom, benevolence, and sympathy for our fellow man, the one I sometimes think we could use a bit more of is industriousness. If only we all had the persistence and tenacity of bees, or even ants and bees, we would probably get a lot more work done.

We all know that sloth is one of the seven deadly sins, and yet it seems at times that we are drawn to that reclining chair and the television as if they were gold.

Now, I'm not denying that some rest and relaxation is both appropriate and ordained by God, who Himself rested on the seventh day; but, sometimes my inclination is to rest and relax on all seven days.

We humans are a bundle of contradictory desires, and what God wants us to do is to follow the better desires of our nature. Those of us who have a vocation should consider it a blessing from God, and hope that He will be pleased with our accomplishments.

When our daily work is done, then we can relax in our lazy chair knowing that our achievements and good intentions were blessed by our heavenly Father.

Work hard and do not be lazy.
 Serve the Lord with a heart full of devotion.

 Romans 12:11
