On Divine Forgiveness

It seems that human nature is such that no one likes to admit being wrong. Perhaps we hesitate to admit being wrong, and tend to blame others, because we fear reprisals and do not want to lose face.

However, as the poet said, "To err is human, to forgive divine." Everyone makes mistakes, and if we cannot admit them out loud, at least we can make peace in our hearts.

God ordained forgiveness, and the Bible tells us that if we are truly sorry for our sins, He will forgive us. Jesus told Peter that he should forgive not seven times, but seven times seventy.

Our lives are truly our own responsibilities. If we regret our mistakes, God will forgive us; and if God can forgive us, perhaps we can find it in our hearts to forgive those who have wronged us. Truly, the gift of forgiveness comes from our Heavenly Father.

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
K.J.V. Matthew 6:12
