Five times a bridesmaid at the Schoolcraft College Invitational girls volleyball tournament, East Kentwood finally stepped up to the altar and got the ring Saturday with a 4-16, 16-2, 16-10 victory over Walled Lake Central in the championship final.

Ranked third in Class A, East Kentwood reached the title match with a 16-9, 16-14 victory over defending state champion Temperance Bedford, which had captured the SC title five of the past six years.

The 32-team field featured four of the state's top six ranked teams in Class A. All four advanced to the semifinals.

Shannon Doyle, East Kentwood's only senior, had 11 kills and 12 digs in the final. The outside-hitter, bound for Kent State, was named tournament MVP.

Junior setter Kelo Evelyand, also named to the All-Tournament squad, racked up 38 assists-to-kill. Front row specialist Susan Poll, a 6-foot-1 middle blocker, led with 12 kills against Central.

"This was the first time we've won it," said East Kentwood coach Roxane Steenhuyzen, whose team is 46-13 overall. "It was a fun day. We got on the floor and dug a lot of balls."

VOLLEYBALL

"Poll had an outstanding day. She's an emotional leader. She competes hard. She's like the energizer bunny."

While coaching at Grand Rapids South Christian, Steenhuyzen also suffered through the frustration of losing 25-23 in a rally-scoring third game few years back to Plymouth Salem in an SC elimination match.

That's what made winning Schoolcraft so gratifying.

Salem, meanwhile, reached the semifinals, only to lose to Walled Lake Central for the second time this season, 15-9, 16-14.

"I knew it would be a tight one and we knew it would be a war," Central coach Mike Lindstrom said. "We had the same kind of match in January."

Salem's Angie Sillmon, named to the All-Tournament squad along with teammate Amanda Suder, was on target most of the day with a total of 54 kills.

"We had trouble stopping her," Lindstrom said. "But we had a good idea on how to play them."

Senior Leah Douglas was Central's top hitter on the day with 68 kills. She also had 35 blocks.

Setter Bocca Saldana, who has made a verbal commitment to Oakland University, came up with 125 assists. The 6-foot senior also recorded 17 aces and 24 blocks.

Amanda Mendenhall, a 5-10 senior, added 48 kills.

Both Saldana and Mendenhall were named All-Tournament.

Amanda Yaklin (28 digs), who served 10 points in one game against Salem, and Erin Rashell, "who was all over the place," according to Lindstrom, paced the defense.

Sarah Schreiber, Kalie Miller, Amy Emerine, Colleen Saldana and Kalie Miller also provided steady play for the Lady Vikings.

"It was a long day and I think we just ran out of gas," Lindstrom said. "We'd like to play them again."

"Our concentration broke after the first game. We had been serving pretty hard, but after the second game when they took it to us, we never really recovered. It carried over to the third game."

Salem's standouts on the day included Suder, a junior, who finished with 37 kills, 43 digs and 15 aces, and setter Laine

Sterling, who had 121 assists and 43 digs. Andrea Pruett contributed 29 kills.

"I was also pleased with the contribution from Erica Stein, that was an unexpected plus," Salem coach Tom Testera said.

"She didn't get a lot of touches, but she opens a lot of things up for us. If not for her setting, we wouldn't have caught up after being down 11-2 (against Central) to actually leading 14-13 (in the second game). She did some nice things out there along with Angelo."

And Jill Dombrowski (16 kills) did a nice job of running the slide play.

Following Schoolcraft action, the No. 6 Rocks are 30-6 overall, while No. 5 Central is 28-4.

If there were any tournament surprises, it occurred in Pool F where Livonia Stevenson, one of the upper-echelon teams in the Western Lakes, finished behind both Dearborn and Marian.

Another mild surprise was Livonia Franklin, which won Pool E with a 3-0 record and then upset last year's runner-up, Livonia Ladywood, in the Sweet 16. Unfortunately for the Patriots, they lost to eventual winner East Kentwood in the quarterfinals, 3-16, 3-16.
