School employee is honored

When Jim Pearse's name was announced as Farmington Public Schools' support service employees of the year, overybody elso in the Warner Middle School cafetria jumped up and wont nuts. "I felt like one of the Beatles," said Pearse to the Farmington school board during Tuesday's meeting, when he and three top teachers were introduced.

Had school board trustee Bobbie Feldman been in that cafeto-ria she'd probably be yelling Jim's name, too.
"I'm's big Beatles fan and I'm a fan of yours," Feldman told Poarse, the assistant custedian at Warner. t Warner. Also honored Tuesday were recipients of Farmington Public Schools teachers of the year awards, co-sponsored by WDIV and Newsweek. The elementary school winner is Mike Morawski, of Hillsido. Middle school and high school recipients, respec-tively, are Dunckel's Stew Kopo-nen and Harrison's Ellie Case.
