short of outstanding, having a save percentage of 89.5, a 1.71 goals against average and suffering only one loss in 20 games.

The Dream Team pick had three shutouts, allowing 35 goals in 333 shots.

"He worked so hard to get back in the lineup," St. John said. "He's such an intelligent player, always thinking, and has tremendous focus. He never forgets where he is, knows where the puck is. He's always looking for the puck, communicating with his teammates."

SECOND TEAM

Dave Moss, forward, Redford CC: Moss led the Shamrocks with a plus 84, scoring 28 goals and 26 assists on a line with Bentley and Jim Spiewak.

The 6-foot-2, 170-pound left wing increased his role significantly in his second year on the team.

"His hand-eye coordination is unbelievable," St. John said. "He gets his stick on the puck any place on the ice. He's a very good skater and getting better. At the end of last year and this year he really came on."

John May, forward, Liv. Stevenson: The senior left winger was the Spartans' top point producer this year with 25 goals and 28 assists for 53 points. He had six goals and six assists outside the league.

May also made All-Suburban and All-State. He is a three-year varsity player. "John is a natural goal scorer," Harris said. "He has soft hands and an eye for the open net."

"He's a jitterbug on skates. He knows how to juke pretty well."

Dan Cook, forward, Liv. Churchill: The third-year varsity performer finished the season with 42 points overall with 24 goals and 18 assists.

The Chargers' center was also voted All-Suburban.

"Dan is a goal scorer," Churchill coach Jeff Hatley said. "He has a cannon of a shot. He scored goals against Catholic Central, Trenton, Port Huron Northern and East Kentwood."

"Competition-wise he's as good as it gets. He's not interested in scoring a bunch of goals against the last-place teams. He's a gamer and a competitor."

Tony Sala, forward, Liv. Franklin: The fourth-year varsity player finished his career with 103 points (51 goals-52 assists). No. 14 on the all-time scoring list.

This season the All-Suburban and All-State pick finished with 29 goals and 21 assists, responsible for nearly 69 percent of the team's scoring.

Sala also was voted team MVP and had the best plus-minus ranking.

"Tony is one of the top players in the SHSL. If not the best," Franklin coach Terry Jobst said. "He played on all the special teams. Every coach in our league states what a great player he is."

Joel Hilday, forward, Redford: Hilday is one of the original members of the RU program, playing on Redford Union's inaugural team in 1996-97. He led the Panthers with 41 points, scoring 21 goals with 20 assists as a forward. He had a plus 38 and spent only 14 minutes in the penalty box, a low total considering his goal size.

"Joel is one of the most cooperative kids I've been around," Mazzoni said. "You ask him to do anything and he'll do it. He has good speed and fastest to go to the net. He's got a pretty big slap shot."

Ryan McBroom, goalie, Liv. Churchill: "Our best play hands down," Hatley said. "He has good speed and fastest to go to the net. He's got a pretty big slap shot. He's a goaltender who makes it look so easy. He does a good job of squaring himself in the net. He's always moving in the right position."

McBroom, who came from the Compuware Midget Major team, plans to return next year for the Chargers. "We'll build our team from the net on out next year," Hatley said.

THIRD TEAM

Adam Krug, forward, Liv. Churchill: At 5 feet, 6 inches, 120 pounds, Krug may be one of the smallest players in the league, but he made his presence known for the Chargers finishing the season with 18 goals and 23 assists.

"Adam is the smartest player I've ever coached," Hatley said. "He does the type of things that complement your best player."

"He has a good feel for the game and he plays well in his own zone."

Brad Holland, forward, Redford CC: Holland scored 14 goals and had 19 assists for a plus 41 and was perhaps the Shamrocks' top face-off man. The two-year letterwinner won 70 percent of his face-offs and had an even draw 13 percent of the time.

St. John said Holland excelled in both ends of the ice.

"He's the most improved player we had," St. John said. "And he has fantastic face-off skills. When we were playing in the playoff games, when the puck was in our zone, I'd throw him out there even if his line wasn't out there to take the faceoff and come back out when he got the chance."

"He's an outstanding defensive player, played well in our defensive zone. A lot of times you got a guy who is good on offense but key is can they play in all zones?"

Jim Spiewak, forward, Redford CC: St. John calls Spiewak "unquestionably a Division 1" college prospect. Spiewak combined size and speed to score 18 goals and collect 25 assists with a plus 51.

Spiewak was the only goal scorer in the Shamrocks' 2-0 win over East Kentwood in the Class A state championship game.

"Certainly the single most exciting time was the state championship game but he's a tough hockey player who delivered some crushing checks," St. John said. "He's a bull."

Ryan Sinka, forward, Liv. Stevenson: The senior center finished the season with 18 goals and 21 assists for 37 points. He had six goals and six assists outside the league.

The All-Suburban pick missed two games during the season because of laying his.

"Ryan is a solid kid, a tank who can skate with a heavy, hard shot," Harris said.

Chris Williams, defender, Stevenson: A one-year varsity performer, Williams anchored the right side of the Spartans' defense en route to All-Suburban accolades.

Williams had six goals and 19 assists.

"He's a gifted kid with a lot of common sense," Harris said. "He's a natural, our best defenseman. He quarterbacked our power play and killed penalties. He can skate or hit the open man coming out of our zone."

Kevin Marlowe, goalie, Stevenson: In 14 games, the sophomore gave up just 21 goals for a 1.62 goals against average. He finished with a 10-3 record and five shutouts.

In the league, Marlowe was even better giving up only eight goals in eight games (1.0 goals against).

"Kevin is a fundamentally sound, hard-working and very focused goalie," Harris said. "He was a pleasure to have on the team."
