couple nice goals. She's just a super athlete.

"Carrie has gotten stronger and is ready to make her own mark as opposed to being in the shadow of her sister (Jenna, a former Mercy star now playing at Indiana University). I think Carrie is ready to come into her own."

The Marlins return all four defenders, and senior Kelly Fuller begins her fourth season as the starting goalie.

Senior co-captain Erin Cain is back at sweeper and junior Mario Lantz at starter. Senior Kate Weiss and sophomore Chrissy Argenta are still the outside backs.

Mercy also has freshman Lindsey Birchmeier and junior Diana Capanyola coming off the bench to help on defense.

"The defense looks pretty solid, and I think they're going to work well back there with each other," Shivrman said. "We have a lot of quickness with Kate and Chris and strength in the middle with Erin and Marie."

Fuller is backed up by junior Kristin Pimlott, who has recovered from a back injury that kept her from playing more last year.

"Fuller plays with a lot of composure," Shivrman said. "She's really relaxed back there, and the defense is comfortable with her."

The Marlins, who were 7-3 in the league, start the season Monday at Woodhaven. The game was scheduled to be played at Mercy, but the site was changed.

Shivrman, who is assisted by former Mercy players Tania Macioce and Anita Wilhelm, believes Foley and Marian will be better, and Ladywood, Regina and Divine Child are always tough opponents.

"I can look at our talent and say I'm optimistic, but I can look at the competition and say it's going to be tougher," Shivrman said. "It's not going to be a walk in the park."

"One of our goals is to get to the Catholic League championship game and get a title. We haven't had a lot of success in the district, so that's another goal."

"Between now and the district, we have to play a lot of games."

Lindsay Berbiglia and Whitney Hawkins as well as freshman Nicole Adena.

"That's one of the positions most up in the air as far as determining who is going to be starting there," Russell said. "All are learning the position and working hard, but it's a matter of not having a lot of experience in that area."

"We're going to have to really work for our goals, but I like what I see as far as the girls' effort in practice."

Junior Ali Edwards will play sweeper, freshman Jenna Street stopper, junior Lisa Beronholz and freshman Meghan Callahan outside defenders.

Senior Jessica Glovack, who has been on the varsity since her freshman year, was injured most of last season but is healthy again and will play defense, as will sophomores Monica Watha and Amanda Park.

"Like pretty much every position, they work well together,"

Russell said. "We might have some trouble matching up with speed at times, but they're smart players. That's going to be a big key for us."

"She's very intense," Russell said. "She talks it up a lot and tries to get the team pumped up. She has a lot of spirit."

North begins the season 7 p.m. Tuesday at West Bloomfield.

"We have to strive to win the games we can win," Russell said, adding injuries the last two seasons hurt the Raiders in that regard. "We'll keep our fingers crossed and hope that doesn't happen again."

"I don't think we're going to win the conference this year. I want the girls to keep their expectations realistic and stay focused on winning the games we should."

"I want them to put forth their best effort every game."

Correction Notice

In our March 28th ad, we advertised a Compaq Palm-Size PC (Aero2130) and Konami's NBA In the Zone '99 game for PlayStation. Due to manufacturing delays, these items are currently unavailable. However, we will be offering rainchecks for both items.
