Family and Friends

While visiting at a nursing home, we met a woman who mentioned that she had no family or close friends. We know that sometimes older people do forget certain things, and it is even possible for them to not be able to remember those who were close to them. However, this situation did cause us to realize how blessed we are to have family and close friends.

Human nature is such, that at times we may not truly appreciate what we have until it is called to our attention, perhaps by the passing away of a dear relative or the moving away of a good friend. A person who has a loving family and good friends is indeed rich and they have been blessed by God. The Bible tells us that some friendships may not last, but that some friends are more loyal than brothers. We are all members of God's family and we are called together in faith by Christ Jesus who is the Savior of the world. "What a friend we have in Jesus," is an old Christian song that reminds us that those who know Jesus as their Lord and Savior should never have to say that they have no family or friends.

For in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God, through faith.
