

Tales and Scales wows pupils

Enthralled: Students at Wooddale and Hillside elementaries recently enjoyed an innovative fine arts assembly by Tales and Scales. The school PTAs funded the performances.

The students of Wooddale and Hillside elementary schools were treated to an innovative fine arts assembly on Friday, April 30.

Tales and Scales, an Evansville, Ind.-based troupe of four classically trained musicians, performed one morning show at Wooddale and two afternoon shows at Hillside.

The performances were funded by the Wooddale and Hillside PTAs.

Wooddale students saw "The Enchanted Horn," while Hillside students saw "Medusa." Tales and Scales also performs "A Harper's Tale" and "Jabberwocky."

The performances were funded by the Wooddale and Hillside PTAs.

The nation's only music-telling ensemble, Tales and Scales spin theater, music, dance and story into performances.

In addition to schools, the troupe performs in art centers, with symphony orchestras, and in schools.

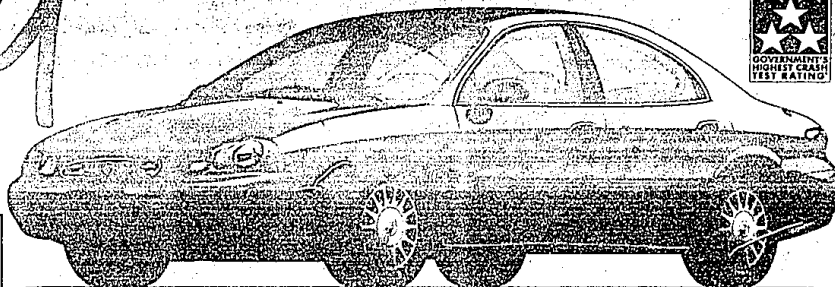

Fine fun: Cast members of Tales and Scales perform.
