

Colts capture 5th relays title in '90s

By Dave Saunders
Staff Writer

Brooklyn High School always has been a team to watch at the Ambrose/Eccentric Relays. Tuesday was no different.

In the 32nd annual meet held at Bloomfield Hills Lahser High School, the Colts became the first team to win back-to-back titles since Southfield's 1988-89 teams. Not only that, but Troy has dominated the 1990s, finishing first five times, second four times and third once.

Troy finished with 83 points, outdistancing second place Brother Rice with 76 points. The host Knights and Birmingham Seaholm tied for third with 58 points, as Lahser had four relay teams take the top medals.

"We love this meet. I love this meet. I came to this meet three times as an athlete," said Troy coach Scott Player, who made his seventh trip to the meet as a coach. "Kermit (Ambrose) is an icon. You can't say enough about Kermit and I won't even try. He started coaching in '36. That's amazing. He has more experience than my team accumulated. It's always enjoyable to come here," Player went on. "It's always a great meet. Kermit does a great job with it. I hope we're coming here for another 20 years with him."

One relay record was shattered on a picture-perfect day and Troy also performed that feat. The team of Matt Graves, Brad Wright and Brian Ottney set the shot-put record with a combined throw of 160 feet, 10.4 inches, breaking the 1987 Troy mark of 154-4.

Ironically, Player was a member of that winning shot put relay team back in '87. Seaholm coach Bill Johansson was a teammate of Player's back in 1987.

"They wanted to break it all year. It was also our school relay record," Player said. "They enjoyed breaking it. They wanted to give me grief, but I told them at least if I couldn't be on it, I was the guy coaching them. That was enjoyable."

TRACK

"And they shattered it. They broke it by five feet, which is phenomenal," Player added. "They had a great, great day, and actually all of them put the shot the best on their last put, which was nice."

Not only does Troy hold the shot put record, but also the discus record.

"We take a lot of pride in the fact we hold both records. And if anyone was going to break them, it had better be Troy as far as I'm concerned," Player said.

"This meet is great because it's after a lot of big meets, and you come here and it's very relaxed," he said. "Often you can come here and get a lot of young kids medals. It's a chance to build for next year. And it's a little more low key."

Troy dominated the field events, winning three of four and placing second in the fourth.

The Colts took the high jump relay behind the efforts of Brad Lucas, Wayne Chiving and Ottney and the discus relay thanks to the efforts of Graves, Wright and Ottney.

Troy also captured top honors in the shuttle hurdle relay in a time of 1:02.29 (Terry Shih, Bryan Barnes, Shavi Sarma and Lucas).

Troy also had a first, two seconds, three thirds and two fourths in the running events.

"Balance has been one of our strengths all year," Player said. "This year we peaked. We've been real strong in the field events. We expected to do well in the shot and discus because those kids had been pretty dominant all year. The high jump was a real surprise, having two kids go 6-2, they both PR'd (achieved personal records)."

Other winners were Brother Rice in the long jump and distance medley relays, Lahser in the 800, 1,600, heavy men's and sprint medley relays, Seaholm in the 400 and 3,200 relays and Rochester in the 6,400 relay.
