

Scavenger hunt focuses on area history

Underground Kanfoad, Where did the slaves hide during their escape?

If you know, or would like to know, now is the time to put your local history recollection to the test. The Longare House in cooperation with the Farmington Hills Department of Special Services in planning another Scavenger Hunt for 7-10 p.m. Tuesday, June 22, this time for adults only.

A similar Scaveager Hunt day was held for families on June 9.

This hunt will be an foot on the original Goodenough-Spicer properties which now include the Longarer House and Her lugo Park north of Ten Mille on the set of the

The event includes food and Winners: The Hooper family of Farmington Hills (at left) completed all 10 clues in the Longacre House local history scavenger hunt contest held recently in Heritage Park. The Hooper daughters were red in the face from running from clue to clue in the heat.

Mealtime: A refreshing picnic followed the scavenger hunt sponsored by the Longacre House. From left, Rick and Shelley Raymond of Farmington Hills cool off with watermelon. With them are Pam Sneider of Livonia, the Raymond daughters Bethany and Leanne, and Kathryn Clappison. The next scavenger hunt is 7-10 p.m.Tuesday, June 22. This one is for adults with a cocktail party at the Longacre House after the hunt. Tickets are $15.

$Treat\ dad$ to spa visit on his day

What do you get this Father's Day for a dad who has everything? Stress, headaches, back pain, everything brought on by today's fast paced world.

Tamara Institute de Beaute in Farmington Hills suggests giving dad a relaxing break from it all with a gift certificate.

The spa escape, a rejuvenating dip'in Tamara's hydro-tub, an hour of therapeutic body massage by trained experts, and a bet oil hand treatment, topped off with a bubbling glass of champagne is $110.

Another option: a hot stone massage, followed by an aroma sauna, and a reflexology hand treatment, costs $95.

treatment, costs $55.

Other spa packages cost from $28 to $160.

If dad has enough tools, ties and shirts, he might like a body massage or other stress reducer instead. For more information, call 855-0474. The spa is located at 32520 Northwestern Highway.

Senior center plans gala for anniversary

Celebrating a silver anniversery, 25 years, is a milestone whether it marks years together in marriage or years of sorvice to the community.
"The Farmington Hills Senior Center celebrates its silver ranniversary Tuesday, July 13, with lunch, an old fashioned ice
resum social and entertainment.
The event will be held in the Costick Activities Center, Middlobelt at 11 Mile.
Oakland County Parks will present a musical review and "Blast from the Past' featuring popular '50s music.
Tickets cost $3 and are now available, Pre-registration is necessary, Call 473-1830. The event is spensored by the senior division and the Heatherwood.

Music camp set

Prince of Peace Lutheran Church in Farmington Hills will hold its 5th annual Music Camp the week of Aug. 2-8 from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
This is a camp for fourth to ninth graders. Krista Hartmann, choir director at Grace Church in Redford and band director at St. Michael's in Wayne, and Stophen Hoelter, music director at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Farmington, will be camp directors.

amp directors.

Call 553-3360 for more infor-

FREE igital Phone

- & Weekends
- 200 Peak Minutes
- $39.95/mo.

CLEARPATH

CLARISTON Four Che La Service Control of the Contro

- FREE Profile 300 Phone
- FREE Nights & Weekends until 2000!

Save $20 when you buy a new Numeric Pager.*

AUTHORIZED AMERITECH LOCATIONS, CALL FOR AVAILABILITY.

313-833-8600 313-892-8000 313-932-7243 Pager One 313-364-9200 313-259-7000

4 YEARS IN A ROW

CALL 1.800-MOBILE-1

Ameritech