Why Me?

We have probably all wondered at one time or another, why seemingly bad things happen to good people, and good things to bad. Of course, who are we to judge who the bad people are; only God can see into a person's heart.

However, the normal response for a person going through difficult times may be for them to ask, "Why me?" Faith and trust in God plays an important part in our ability to accept various unpleasant situations. Although we may not always understand the way things happen in this world, we should know that each of us is loved by God, and it is important that we rely on Him to know what is best for us.

God has a plan for each of our lives, and someday when we are in paradise with Him, I am sure we will understand all of the mysteries of this life that we encounter. In the meantime, our faith will be strengthened by accepting that all things happen for the good of those who love and trust the Lord, and that He has everything under His control.

And this small and temporary trouble we suffer will bring us a tremendous and eternal glory, much greater than the trouble.
Good News Bible 2 Corinthians 4:17
