

Goalies get into scoring act

It's rare, but goalies do get an assist on a goal once in a while. But two goalies on the same team? And three in the same game?

That might be a first for the high-flying Metro Summer Hockey League.

Goalies Brandon Hotham and Lanny Jardine each registered an assist Tuesday as their Lak-ers defeated the host Broncos, 9-7, in a MSHL game at the Plymouth Cultural Center.

Broncos' goalie Rick Marnon was credited with an assist on a third-period goal. He went the distance for the Broncos while Jardine relieved Hotham at 7:20 of the second period.

The other big offensive stars for the Lakers were two-goal scorers Mike Vigilante, Eric Dolash and Brian Jardine. Scot Curtin, Nick Jardine and Ron Lowrie each scored once.

Curtin had five assists, Eric Dolash and Brian Jardine three each, Vigilante two and Scot Dolash and Matt Frick one apiece.

Kyle McNeillance had a hat trick for the Broncos, Steve Sharp had two goals and Nick Smyth and Nick Field one each. Assist leaders were Field with three, Tony Koshishian and Scott Kale one each.

WOLVERINES 10, SPARTANS 7: Eric Hawkins and Ryan Ward each had a hat trick Tuesday to lead the Wolverines to their victory at the Plymouth Cultural Center.

Marc O'Keefe, Vanujan Arman, Dan Trainor and Keith Rowe added the other goals for the winners. Krikor Arman had four assists, Chris Morelli and Brad Feller two apiece and eight players had one each — O'Keefe, Dan Trainor, Bill Trainor, Hawkins, Ward, John Gallagher, Jim Wherton and goalie Mike O'Keefe.

The Spartans got goals from seven different scorers — Jason Lawmaster, Jack McCoy, John Brodhuun, Nick Lawarne, Craig Polser, Adam Krug and Dave Street. Assists went to Pete Mazoni, Dave Sellini, McCoy, Joe Kustra, Krug and Street.

Eric Pajel started in goal for the Spartans and was replaced at 7:50 of the second period by Tom McNeill. Mike O'Keefe went the distance in goal for the Wolverines.

BULLDOGS 6, BRONCOS 2: St. Louis Blues seventh-round draft choice Phil Osar made 25 saves Monday to lead the Bulldogs past the Broncos at the Plymouth Cultural Center.

Osar, who just completed his freshman year at Ferris State, went all the way in the nets.

Kevin Swidtor, another Ferris State player, led the offense with three goals and one assist.

Matt Grant, Jason Basile and Eric Brecher scored the other Bulldog goals, while Nick Martens had two assists.

Kyle McNeillance and Mike Mattilla each scored goals for the Broncos.

LAKERS 12, WILDCATS 6: Lake Superior State's Mike Vigilante scored five goals and added two assists Tuesday to propel the Lakers past the Wild-cats in the first game of double-helter at the Cultural Center.

Brian Jardine contributed three goals and two assists, Nick Jardine added a goal and three assists.

Scot Curtin collected four assists, while Chris Libbett and Matt Frick each had a goal and assist.

Lanny Jardine and Brandon Hotham shared the Lakers' net-minding duties.

Sean Kass paced the Wildcats with four goals, while Daryl Schiermeijer and Mike Swistak had the other goals. Brent Bessey clipped in with three assists, while Kevin Bushoy added two.

WOLVERINES 23, BULLDOGS 3: Lincoln's Marc O'Keefe, who played for Plymouth Midlet AA, scored four times Sunday in the Wolverines' rout of the Bulldogs at the PCC.

Jim Wherton added two goals and three assists, while Brad Feller had two goals and one assist.

Other offensive standouts for the Wolves included Krikor Arman, three assists; Keith Rowe, one goal and two assists; Erik Hawkins, one goal and three assists.

Goaltender Thomas Monnier went all the way in the nets for the Wolves.

Eric Brecher scored twice for the Bulldogs. Brian Heise added a goal and one assist, while Brad Vonnemut contributed two assists.

LAKERS 8, SPARTANS 6: Chris Libbett's goal with just two seconds remaining gave the Lakers the tie Sunday night against the Spartans at PCC.

Eric Dolash and Jeremy Majczak led the Lakers with two goals apiece. Brian Jardine added two assists, who played for Plymouth Midlet AA, scored four times Sunday in the Wolverines' rout of the Bulldogs at the PCC.

Jack McCoy led the Spartans with two goals, while Jason Lawmaster (Belleville Bulls), Jake Wiegand and Joe Kustra each contributed a goal.

BRONCOS 8, WILDCATS 4: In the first game Sunday at PCC, Nick Field of the Des Moines Buccaneers scored the game-winner with 6:08 remaining and Kyle McNeillance, who had two goals, added an empty-netter.
