Cast Your Anxieties On The Lord

Some people have a tendency to overly concern themselves with every situation with which they are faced. Most things that they become concerned with are not really that important and they just cause themselves undue stress and anxiety. We should try to understand those things that are truly important in our lives, and then determine which of these should really concern us. We should not worry about minor things or things that we cannot control. God wants our lives to be peaceful, loving, and at ease from difficulties as possible. He does not want us to dwell on the negative things that have happened to us in the past, or worry about things of the future. We will never be able to totally control or know everything about every situation in our lives, and being anxious about everything can be exhausting and depressing. We can, however, adopt a new motto for our lives: "I'll do my best, and leave the rest to God." Psalm 28:11 tells us that the Lord gives strength to his people and blesses them with peace.

Cast your burden on the Lord,
and He will sustain you...
Revised Standard Version Psalm 55:22
