Everyone Is Good At Something

God has given each of us special talents and abilities, and it is our responsibility to develop and use these gifts for His glory. We may not be a world-class athlete or a famous artist or musician, but we may possess other talents or gifts that are just as important. For example, we may have the gift of encouragement, or perhaps offering comfort, or simply just being a good helper. Although these gifts are often overlooked, everyone needs encouragement and comforting at times, and there is always someone in our lives who needs help.

Special talents and gifts that we may have are only good if we share them. A person may be an exceptional artist or musician, but their efforts may be self-indulgent and wasted if they are not shared with others; gifts of the heart are also wasted if they are not shared. God wants His people to use their given abilities and talents to enhance the good of others.

Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others. RSV Philippians 2:4
