IT HAPPENED IN NEW YORK Typical incident of the injured Wom-an and the Driver of the Truck.

In front of a wholesale house in In front of a wholesale house in Park place a large truck was backed up to the circh. Two or three long brass pipes and a sheaf of metal rods projected from the tail of the wagion almost hild-way across the pavement at a height of some four feet or so. A woman, evidently in a great hurry! came along, failed to see the obstruction and dashed straight into it. The metal bruised her check bailly and loosened a tooth or two. She fell to the sidewalk and a dozen persons rushed to her and a dozen persons rushed to her nid.

Nobody seemed to know what to do. The woman was weeping hysterically and two girls led her to the entrance of a shop and tried to soothe her. An indignant bystander walked menacingly up to the driver of the
