Have A Good Day

A common phrase that is frequently used is "Have a good day," and we usually will just pass it off as a nice pleasantry. However, the kind of day we have can mostly be determined by our self and our relationship with our Lord.

It seems that some people always have good days, while others never seem to be at peace. Grumbling and complaining can be habit forming, and you have to feel compassion for those who never seem to be content.

St. Paul tells us in the Bible that he learned to be content in whatever state he was in. He knew what it was like to be in need and what it was to have more than enough. Whether he was full or hungry, whether he had too much or too little, he said he learned that the secret to be able to face all conditions was through the power that Christ gave him. Each day we should be resolute and determined to have a good day, and just knowing that Jesus is always with us and that He will never forsake us should help to keep our spirits high.

A glad heart makes a cheerful countenance, but by sorrow of heart the spirit is broken. RSV - Proverbs 15:13
