North loses close meet to Salem

It was anticipated Thursday's dual swim meet between Plymouth Salem and North Farmington would be closely contested. There was no disappointing those expectations.

The Raiders came up with seven first-place finishes in the 12 events, getting two individual wins apiece from Lindsey McEneaney and Jenny Bendick. But Salem got the team victory, edging North 94-92 at Salem.

The win against one of their biggest challengers for second place in the Western Lakes Activities Association pushed the Raiders' record to 4-2.

Salem had one double-winner in individual events: Sarah Rogers, who finished first in both the 200-yard (2:02.75) and 500-yard (6:31.58) freestyles.

McEneaney won the 200 individual medley (2:12.54) and 100 backstroke (1:01.53), while Bendick was first in both the 100 butterfly (1:06.32) and 100 breaststroke (1:15.75).

Other winners for Salem were Monica Glowacki in the 50 free (26.52), Kim Tammie in diving (149.40 points), and the 200 free relay team of Glowacki, Emily Laake, Alicia Dotson and Rogers (1:46.38).

North won two of the three relays, with Tara Grider, Bendick, Turner and McEneaney combining in the 200 medley (1:58.97) and Grider, Melissa Navas, Sarah Paske and McEneaney teaming in the 400 free (3:50.50).

Grider also won the 100 freestyle for the Raiders (57.83).

Northville rips Canton

Northville won the first five events Thursday at Plymouth Canton and claimed nine wins in 12 races in handing the Chiefs a 113-73 loss in a W.L.A.A. Western Division dual meet.

Two of Canton's three firsts were captured by Danielle Drydale, who bettered the state qualifying standard in winning the 100-yard butterfly (1:01.84). Drydale's other individual first was in the 100 backstroke (1:03.09).

She combined with Lindsey Muliole, Michelle Nilson and Jamie Bielak for another first in the 400 free relay (4:09.89).

The Mustangs had two double-winners in individual events: Erin Schubert in the 200 (2:08.04) and 500 (5:43.11) freestyles, and Stephanie Sabo in the 200 individual medley (2:18.15) and 100 free (57.75). The team of Sabo, Jessica Hrivnak, Deirdra Schwing and Jenny Carr also broke the Canton pool record and qualified for state in winning the 200 free relay (1:43.76).

Canton hosts Farmington Harrison at 7 p.m. Thursday.
