nington Comm earmington Community

Jabray Will announce Is

Opporting in this space

Secretary Transport

"At 23000 liberty, Famington, at 14-1790.

"First Grade Library Sters" will skine once again at the library. The Famington Community Ubrary will just open houses this October for Agrid grade readers who attend Famington area schools.

Gludents will be welcomed to the world of reading and will learn what the library has to offer. They will be able to agin just for a library card, check out books and erjoy a few superiors. The second of the present library. St. Fablan and Kenbrook Treaddy. Oct. 22 at the main library; and Flanchers and Geophysics on Justice, All spon houses begin at 7. "Comm" Westel Stone First.

Alwaday, Oct. 28 at the remnangon prepach, All popen houses begin at 7: 2000. Come "Weeve Some Fun" at 30:30 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 9 at the spini thizary write the Michigan Haevera Guild. The guild will demon-jarea a spining wheel and help childen prate a spining wheel and help childen from the create, a special project. The Childrin's Department at the spin bisary invites fourth and fifth rigidate to join in the discussion of Stillary McKory's "Dog Friday" at 10:30 a.m. Parents see welcome to fail in.

19:00 Jam. Parents are welcome to delic lin.

Sing the entire family to Dan chair from the entire family to Dan chair from the control of "Creature fragular." To see some unusual anti-guels, such as an iguana, a parrot, an imperior of the control of the control the library's second ennual feativel in the Farmington branch Thursday, Oct. 21 and Thursday, Oct. 28 at the main tityrary, fiturities bogin sit 7 p.m. Seasonal exhaptures and togeth and togeth and the grant and the grant and the grant and the same and the vacy, and ascurity, virus and, PC impaired, and according and a part and a pa main libray. Both classes begin at 7 p.m.

Handson classes are also available on "Finding and Printing and Printing Magazine Articles" by using the Info Tree Gearch Beark to find and print articles in the library or from home using a modern connection (most bear in the library of the printing and printin

9:15 a.m. Thursday, Oct. 2.1 at the main library. Finally, "Using the Library Catalog," will teach users to locate materials, place holds and center books within the library or from home computer. October classes include 9:15 a.m. Fiddey, Oct. 15 at the Farmington branch, and 9:15 a.m. Thursday, Oct. 28 at the main library.

ilibrary. To register or for information, call the main library, 553-0300, or the Farmington branch, 474-7770. Library programs and events may also be found on the library's home page at www.fermilib.org

O&E Newspapers sponsor Jail & Bail Oct. 18-22

The Add Security Septem

Paul Gors the 10 James Patterson Hony Passer and the Administration J.K. Rowlling Lab

J.K. Rowling (J. P. Poster St. P. Poster St. P. Poster St. P. Poster St. Post

Faya Kallerman

Head These: A V.L. b Hough Seen Paratoky the William Roses.

Family Honer, Robert B. Parker Mark Helice, Patricia Comme

The Red Test; Anite Diamont

Youths present

Our Lady of Sorrows Youth Ministry presents an evening of Christian vaudeville from 6:45-8:30 p.m. Monday, Oct. 11 at Our Lady of Sorrows Church, 23816 Power Road in Farming-

Dimes save babies through programs of research, community service, advocacy and education. For more information, call the March of Dimes at (248) 359-1550.

Student wins award

East Middle School student Stacle Guerreso recently Stacle Guerreso recently received a prestigious state school citizenship award in Lansing.

Statie, the daughter of Karen and Mario Guerrese of Farmington Hills, earned the 1998-99 Nicholas Green Distinguished Student Award, given by the Michigan Alliance for Gifted Education.

Education.

The award, given annually to one student per state, was started by parents whose 7-year-old son was killed in a drive-by shooting while visiting Italy in 1994.

1994.

State, a sixth grader at East, was nominated by Liz Okopny, who is the gifted coordinator for farmington Public Schools. The youngster received a $500 U.S.

Winner: Stacie Guerreso, in Lansing last month, receiv-ing her award. From left: Liz Okopny, Farmington schools gifted coordinator, Mary Bailey-Hengesh, Bar-bara Lewis, Carol McCcarthy, Stacie Guerreso, Karen Guerreso, Mario Guerreso and Marie Brucher.

Savings Bond, during a formal reception in Lansing. She attended William Grace Elementray School last year.

Bue Goering, president of Michigan Alliance for Gifted Education, notified Stacie by letter of her award.

"Your remarkable talent, academic achievement and citizenship have distinguished you your mong students in grades three through-six throughout Michigan." Goering letter studed. "Your remarkable talent, academic achievement and citizen-ship have distinguished you smong students in grades three-through-six throughout Michi-gan," Goering's letter stated.

POLICE AND FIRE NEWS

The fo:lowing items are police and fire calls reported during the past week in Farmington Hills and Farmington.

Hills and Farmington.

STOLEN VAN

In Formington Hills:
A men rented a 1999 Ford Club Econoline cargo van but failed to return it to McDonald Rentals on Eight Mile Sept. 29.
When contacted, the man said his son stole the vehicle and later said his sister did. Detroit police said the man did report a stolen van but didn't complete the report. Police found the man who rented the van has numerous aliasses. ous alinses.

In Farmington Hills:

A resident on the 37000 block of Legends Trail reported two folex watches and a gold ring were stolen from the home between July 1 and Oct. S.

Since August, a man described as in his 50s has been taking rocks used for landscaping from a place on the 30000 block of Orchard Lake. When confronted, the man claimed he had permission to remove the boulders. Besides, he told the person, it was city property. The owner said she gave no such permisand she gave no such permis-sion.

A nylon bag containing Uni-versity of Michigan football sea-son tickets and a Palm Pilot was reported stolen a home on the 25000 block of Rutledge Crossing Oct. 7.

REFAK DIS

ATTENTIAL MOST IN Formington Hills:

A thief broke a passenger side window and stole a purse with credit cards and chockbook from inside a Toyota Camry parked on the 25000 block of Toddy Lane Oct. 6, causing $400 damage.

In Farmington Hills:

A woman reported a ring and bracelet missing after ehe found a closet door ajar in a home of the 26000 block of Pleasant Valley Oct. 6.

A person feeding the neighbor's cat while the homeowner is on vacation found a side door forced open at the home on the 36000 block of Congress between Oct. 6-7.

CRACK COCARRE ASSESSION IN Formington Bills.

In Formington Bills.
Onforces with South Oakland
Narootica Intelligency Consortium arrested a Sputhfield man, 38, and his passenger, a Dearborn man, 48, after finding crack cocaine and marijuans during a traffic stop on Grand River and Rockwell around 220 am. Oct.
6. Folice stopped the 1990 Olds Cuttass because the registered owner had an outstanding warrant. The passenger saintied he had a bug of marijuans in his pocket. Authorities found crack occaine in the cas's ashtray.

DRIMSKIN DEWINSS.

cocaine in the car's ashtray.

DRUMAINS DERVINES

In Farmingtos Hills:
Police arrested, a Walled Lake man, 34, for drunken driving and occaine possossion on eastbound 1-696 near Middiobelt around 2:30 a.m. Oct. 7. Police stopped the 1999 Clarysler Concorde for swerving. The driver had a blood alcohol level of 1.77 percent. The legal limit is 10 percent. Authorities also found powdered occaine wrapped powdered cocaine wrapped inside a dollar bill.

