—Mayor

Mayor Bill Hartsock emphasized that the council isn't merely commissioning an outside study and then reacting to recommendations.

"We need to do some leg work ourselves," said Hartsock, calling the four target areas "common sense things we can do right now."

According to Hartsock, "There are things the city can do, things the landlords can do and things the businesses can do. It's really the evolution of a solution."

Join in downtown holiday spirit

The Farmington Downtown Development Authority will once again sponsor the Annual Holidays Around the World 11 a.m.-4 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 4.

A special holiday fire truck will arrive at 11 a.m. in the Downtown Farmington Center parking lot when there will be a sing-along to holiday favorites.

Beginning at 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. free classic trolley park and rides will be offered around town.

Under the tent in the Downtown Farmington Center parking lot will be the check-in at an information table for holiday treasure maps that will help you solve clues to tour the downtown shops for complimentary treats from around the world.

Other events of the day include:

■ A free electric train exhibit 10 a.m.-4 p.m. at the downtown library. The exhibit is sponsored by Deb's Crafts & Collectibles.

■ Visit the Farmington Historical Museum noon-4 p.m. courtesy of Focal Point Studios and Books Abound.

■ Listen to strolling musicians throughout downtown 11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

For more information, call the DDA at 473-7276.
