

Ocelots win game; Crusaders win also, but lose players

Nice warm-up.
Which is all Wednesday's home game against Sinclair (Ohio) Community College was, in truth — preparation for a much tougher test, which came yesterday at Owens CC (Toledo) ranked No. 1 in the NCAA Division II.

Sinclair was no test at all for Schoolcraft College's men's team, which raced to a 50-21 lead by halftime, then coasted to a 102-61 triumph.

The win improved SC's record to 6-3.
"I thought that was one of our better efforts of the year defensively," said Ocelot coach Carlos Briggs. "We're starting to play better as a team. We're starting to share the ball more, rotate the ball better."

"And we're cutting down on our turnovers, which has been an Achilles heel for us."

Five Ocelots reached double figures in scoring, led by Lamar Bigby with 22 points. Robert Brown added 17 points and 14 rebounds, Quentin Mitchell had 12 points, and Chris Colley and Dwight Windham netted 10 points apiece.

Madonna wins, but loses

It has been one dark December for Madonna University's women's basketball team.

First the Lady Crusaders lost leading scorer Kathy Panzenia. Then last Saturday, back-up center Stephanie Uebelle — an all-Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference volleyball player — suffered a severe knee injury and is lost for the season.

That was followed by more trouble. In Thursday's non-league game against visiting Wayne State, starting center Lori Enfield suffered a severe finger injury that could keep her sidelined for a considerable length of time.

With the bench shrinking each game, it seems amazing that the Crusaders can put up much of a fight. But they not only put up a fight against WBU, they got a victory — 74-61.

The win boosted Madonna's record to 6-4. The Lady Warriors are 4-6.

The Crusaders, who lost Enfield after just five minutes, still built a 10-point lead by halftime (37-27), thanks to 14 first-half points from Chris Dietrich. Dietrich finished with 17 points, making all three of her three-point attempts.

Jen Amy's basket and free throw brought the Warriors to within four (47-43) with 12:46 left in the second half, but they could get no closer. A basket by Kristi Florenzi (from Plymouth Canton) and a triple by Jackie Kocis pushed Madonna's lead back to nine (52-43) with 11:52 remaining.

Joining Dietrich in double-figures in scoring were Kocis with 12 and Carissa Giszicki with 10. Florenzi finished with nine.

Giszicki also totaled seven rebounds, five assists and three steals.

WSU got 14 points from Amy and 11 from Liz Beach.

Madonna outshot the Warriors, converting 22-of-46 from the floor (46.8 percent) compared to 25-of-79 for WSU (31.6 percent).

The Crusaders also hit 7-of-11 three-pointers (63.6 percent) compared to 4-of-28 for WSU (14.3 percent), and were 23-of-27 at the line (85.2 percent); the Warriors were 7-of-11 at the stripe (63.6 percent).

WSU men rout Madonna

The question is, why play this game?

Madonna University's men's basketball team had virtually no chance when it took on Wayne State Wednesday in Detroit. And it showed from the start: the Crusaders fell behind by 26 at the half and ended up absorbing a 103-49 shellacking.

The loss left Madonna at 2-12 for the season.

Not much went right for the Crusaders. They converted just 20-of-57 floor shots (35.1 percent) and were just 3-of-15 from three-point range (20 percent); at the free-throw line, Madonna made 8-of-9 (88.7 percent) compared to WBU's 20-of-23 (87 percent).

The Crusaders were outrebounded 46-38 and committed a whopping 33 turnovers compared to 11 for the Warriors.

Jason Skocrylas led Madonna with 17 points, eight rebounds and two blocked shots. Chad Putnam (from Redford Thurston) added 11 points. No one else scored more than six.

WSU got 14 points apiece from Adam Jones and Alex Ward. Brent Wall and Charles LeFure added 12 each, Ben Bakken scored 11 and A.W. Canada had 10. Jones also had a team-high 11 rebounds and eight steals, and Andy Dold collected eight assists and five steals.

Madonna played without sophomore Mike Massey, the team's top scorer who sat out the game for disciplinary reasons.

SC women fall

An 11-point advantage evaporated down the stretch for Schoolcraft College's women's team, which lost at Lansing CC 55-51 Wednesday.

The defeat left the Lady Ocelots carry a 1-6 record into the millennium break. They don't play again until Jan. 3 at Macomb CC.

With 11:30 left in the game, SC had an 11-point lead, but squandered it. Janelle Olson and Antone Watson topped the Ocelot scorers with 13 points apiece; Angelica Blaskely added eight points, 16 rebounds and five blocked shots.

Raider men, women need holiday break to change their losing ways

Oakland Community College's men's and women's basketball teams ran into a little tough going late in the week.

Lake Michigan College's men's team defeated Oakland Community College, 71-60, Wednesday night in Benton Harbor.

Edward Wallace came off the bench to lead the Raiders (4-6) with 16 points. Tim Swafford had 15, Jovell Leatherwood 13 and Walter Malone 11.

BASKETBALL

A 28-2 deficit in points off turnovers hurt OCC, as did 36 percent shooting because the Raiders held a 64-38 rebounding edge. Leatherwood had 16 rebounds to help OCC gain a 31-5 edge in second-chance points.

OCC had 27 turnovers in the game to just 11 for Lake Michigan. Scottie Shaver led Lake Michigan (6-4) with 19 points.

OCC women drop two

OCC's women's basketball team lost two more basketball games — but at least they were coming closer to victory.

On Friday, OCC lost a 48-41 decision to visiting Alpena CC, wasting a 23-17 halftime lead.

OCC made it to overtime Thursday night but fell, 71-61, to Sinclair (O.) CC.

Mahogany Fletcher led the Lady Raiders with 16 points Friday afternoon but no other player reached double figures. Sara Weas had nine for OCC (1-6).

Alpena CC (2-5) got 12 points from Sofia Boote and 10 from Melissa VanStedam. In the second half Alpena shot 43 percent while holding OCC to just 25 percent (6-for-24) shooting. Alpena made half its 10 three-point shots in the second half while OCC went 1-for-10.

The Lady Raiders lost the rebounding battle, 41-28.

In the Thursday night overtime tussle, Weas scored 23 points to lead four players in double figures. Fletcher had 15, Nicole Schulte 13 and Breanna Pearson 10.

Sinclair made nearly twice as many turnovers, 31-16, but won the rebound battle, 55-37.

Sinclair shot 54 percent in the second half to just 29 percent for the Lady Raiders.

OCC posted a 29-26 second half to force the overtime but couldn't overcome Courtney Weng's 27 points for Sinclair (2-0).
