Let Your Conscience Be Your Guide

Of all the different senses and feelings that a person has, one of the most important and useful is our conscience.
A person with good upbringing and strong moral convictions is blessed because he or she can usually differentiate between right and wrong.
Behaving in a way that is pleasing to our Lord is necessary for a fulfilling and peaceful life. It is not always easy to do the things that we know are good and right, because it sometimes means that we have to get involved or make a commitment.
Sometimes when various situations arise, our first thought may be about how it will affect us, rather than about what is right.

If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.
KJV. 1 John 1:9
