Everything Is Going To Be All Right
During childhood, we learn that whenever we hurt ourselves, or when something bad happens, our parents can usually help and comfort us. A parent saying "you are going to be okay," or "it's all right," may be all that is needed to reassure a child in times of crisis. However, when we become adults, we sometimes forget to go to our Heavenly Parent, God, for comfort and reassurance. If we could hear in our hearts that tiny voice of God saying, "I am with you; everything is going to be all right," perhaps many of our fears and anxieties could be allayed. Guidance and support are beneficial to everyone's life, and as we mature and grow in our faith, we should trust in the Lord and know that He will never leave or forsake us.

God's Spirit joins himself to our spirits to declare that we are God's children.
