A two-point conversion catch the deficit to seven and had the deficit to seven and had kickoff and punt returns. Rigley

A two-point conversion catch cut the deficit to seven and had RU thinking upset.

"RU kidding me?", asked RU canch Glenn Scala, mocking a catch phrase that some used to describe the Panthers' dreamlike senson. "No, we're not kidding you. The whole town was proud of these guys. The fans were finantiatic. They believed and we believed. The kids played hard and never gave up. That's what got us here.

RU hung in amazingly well considering the time of possession and yardage advantage Dearborn enjoyed.

The Pioneers ran 65 plays from scrimmage to RUs 493, outgaining the Panthers, 431-222, utility and 17, and on a pass of 22 yards. Senior fullback Eric Green had 119 yards in 19 carriers, senior fullback Eric Green had 119 yards in 19 carriers.

yards. Senior fullback Error Green had 119 yards in 19 carries. Macek had a hard-carned 43 yards in 10 carries, scoring on a four-yard run, and adding a bunch more with several long kickoff and pust returns. Rigley was hurried all eight but still completed 10 of 21 passes for 154 yards.

His only interception was nullified by a Dearborn penalty, keeping alive an RU drive that ended with Maeck's four-yard run just before halftime.

The Panthers also scored minutes earlier on a blocked punt that was covered in the end zone by Adrian Beaver.

Dearborn, which enjoyed leads of 14-0 and 21-7, went into the halftime leading 21-19.

"They were good, no doubt about it," Dearborn coach Dave Mifsud said of RU. "But when you march all over them early, I you march all over them early, I think the kids led down. We dominated and the mental mis-dominated and the mental mis-takes kept them in the game."

The game started like some played in the past between the two teams, as Dearborn had touchdown drives of 64 and 61 on its first two possessions. Kreger finished the first drive with a 13-yard option run and Wilkinson capped the second with an 8-yard run, the first of his four touchdowns.

RU cut the deficit to 14-7, however, with a one-yard dive by fullback Eric Newton with 3:38 left in the qunter following a 11-yard catch by Dave Brown.

Wilkinson outleaped Macek in the corner of the end zone for a 22-yard TD catch on fourth down and 17 with 9:24 remaining in the half to raise the Dearborn lead to 21-7. There was a question of whether Wilkinson pushed off but Dearborn control to 21-7. There was a question of whether Wilkinson pushed off but Dearborn control with the second pushed the second half with the second half without senior full-back/defensive tackle Eric Newton, who left with a nakle injury after gaining 31 yards on three carries, including an 18-yard scamper that led to the Panthers third touchdown.

Druken leads Whalers to 5-4 win over Platers

Harold Druken notched his 20th and 21st goals of the season Friday as the Plymouth Whalers skated to a 5-4 win over the visiting Owen Sound Platers before 3,309 fans Friday night at Compuware Sports Arena.
Paul Mara scored the gamewinning goal from Adam Colagincomo at 16:11 of the final period to improve the Whalers record to 15-2 in the Ontario Hockey League.
Owen Sound, getting a pair of goals from Chris Minard, falls to 7-7-2.
Rick Smith also scored a goal for the Whalers, who trailed 2-0 after one period, but regained the lead 3-2 after two periods. Randy Fitzerald also scored an unassisted goal for Plymouth at 7:28 of the third for a 4-3 Whuler lead.
