extend its mission through the winter months, drawing from our large network of artists," he added.

The 130 artists are gleaned from the same roster of those who present their work at the Ann Arbor fair.

The Holiday Art Fair, now in its 29th year, will give art enthusiasts a chance to meet with the artists.

The fair will feature an "Imag-ination Station" in which chil-dren of all ages can explore their art talents and kids and adults can create their own unique gift wrap, Kronenberg said.
