Hospice seeks volunteer help

Beaumont Hospice is seeking volunteers to help support the care of people with terminal illness and their families.

Volunteers must be 18 or older and have excellent listening skills, flexibility to provide volunteer services at various times of day, and sensitivity to the needs of terminally ill people and their families. Most volunteers work in patients' homes in the tri-county area.

Hospice volunteers perform activities such as sitting with patients, active listening, reading, assisting with errands, writing letters and taking the person to appointments. They work a minimum of two hours per week.

Hospice is a philosophy of care in which the hospice team (including doctors, nurses, social workers, chaplains, home health aides, homemaker and volunteer) work together to provide specialized care to terminally ill people and their families.

Training sessions for hospice volunteers are held. Call the Beaumont Hospice office at (248) 853-8931 for more information.

You've Lived A Life Of Dignity, Independence And Choice.

At Botsford Commons' Assisted Living Center You Don't Have To Change A Thing.

Announcing the opening of Botsford Commons Assisted Living Center. This innovative facility, located in an historic and newly renovated Albert Kahn-designed building in Farmington Hills, offers a caring environment for those who need support to maintain daily living routines. Residents receive assistance only with the services needed and requested, encouraging each individual to remain as independent as possible in a safe and secure environment. Center residents retain privacy and comfort in individual apartments while their psychological and social needs are met through a variety of programs and group activities. Easily accessible community living, dining and social areas complement comfortable accommodations with private baths and generous space for treasured personal furnishings. The center features a chapel, clinical offices and a full range of health care services including geriatric assessment programs. As an older adult, you've lived a life that has been one characterized by dignity, independence and choice. It should continue to be. When you choose

Botsford Commons Assisted Living Center, you insure that the next chapter of your life is filled with the same richness of choice and independence to which you are accustomed and that you deserve.

For more information, call 248-477-1646.
