threaded tissue paper in variety of jewel-tones at $2.25 a sheet, brightly colored raffia ribbon at $5.50 a spool, and organdy Midori ribbon from Japan at 95 cents to $1.65 a yard.

"It's gorgeous, just gorgeous ribbon," said Von Kulajta of the Midori.

Don't have time to wrap?

Don't panic. Head over to the Westland Center, where they have two gift-wrapping stations just waiting for your packages.

The stations, which also have a coat and package check, are located near J. C. Penney's and J. L. Hudson's. Choose from 16 wraps priced at $2.50-$6 depending on size. You must have your own box. None are sold. Presents do not have to be purchased in mall.

"We're making it as easy as possible," said Claudia Frederick, senior marketing manager, who added that most of the station's customers are men.

Sorry, guys. Happy Holidays anyway.

Help recognize YMCA's Bush

The staff and Board of Directors of the Farmington Family YMCA would like to invite the residents of Farmington and Farmington Hills to share a few moments filled with history, reflection, triumphs, bloopers and memories that will recognize Kevin Bush for his 18 years of service at the Farmington Branch YMCA.

Bush will be moving into his new position at the YMCA of Metropolitan Detroit Association Office after the holidays. The reception will take place 4-6 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 23, at the Farmington Family YMCA.

Wish Soronen well 4-6 p.m. Friday

Well wishers are invited to a reception in honor of Jody Soronen, a veteran of the Farmington-Farmington Hills Chamber of Commerce, 4-6 p.m. Friday, Dec. 18, at Marco's, 32755 Grand River Avenue.

Contact the chamber office if you plan to attend, 474-3440, Ext. 21.
